

fore we hope every prudent industrious man will be cautious how he goes bail for another.

Last Tuesday the Rev. John Wesley arrived here from Cork, and having preached the same morning at Kilsnan at five o'clock, he preached here at six in the evening to a very crowded congregation. Yesterday he went to Pallas, in the county Limerick, where he preached, and returned here yesterday evening. To-morrow he will set out for Castlebar, &c.

Last Tuesday evening a porter fell from the Custom-House-Quay into the river, and was carried down to Mr. Mahon's Quay; he remained under water about 15 minutes, when Mr. Hill Phillips being sent for, and with the assistance of many gentlemen present, such mode was made use of as to restore the man to life.

The Catharina Maria, Gatchiff, from this Port, arrived at Elshneur the 11th inst.

COMMITTED. To the County Gaol yesterday by Thomas Lloyd, Esq; Timothy Ryan, Servant, charged with violently assaulting Timothy Hayes of Farnane, Farmer, and Margaret Kean of said place (on the 12th inst) whose life is despaired of:—also Dennis Hayes of Thuragh, Yeoman, charged with violently assaulting James Hayes of Drumfally, Farmer, on the 9th inst, and also for assaulting and threatening the life of Robert Harding of Drumfally, Esq.—Being apprehensive of a rescue, they were escorted to the said Gaol, by Mr. O'Brien, High Constable, and a detachment of the 15th Regiment.

MARRIED. Last Tuesday, at Fedamore-Church, William Bennett, the younger, of Ballincolloe, Esq; to the very amiable Miss Alice Parker, daughter to the Revd. John Parker, of Fedamore.—Yesterday at Pallas, in Kerry, Mr. Jones, of Tipperary, to the agreeable Miss Catherine Wiffon, daughter of Mr. John Wiffon, with a handsome fortune.

DIED Last Tuesday, in John's-street, Mr. Hugh Benn, one of the Gunners of the old Establishment of this garrison.—Same day, in Creagh-lane, Mr. Francis Larkin, Publican.—The 30th ult. in the 67th year of his age, at Springfield, near Borris-in-Ossory, the seat of his son, Major Tydd, Francis Tydd, late of the city of Cork, Esq.

PORT NEWS.

May 12.—SAILED for London—Endeavour, Dent, pork, feathers and quills.

CARPETS AND BLANKETS.

JOHN RUSSELL Linen Draper, is just returned from DUBLIN, with a new and elegant Variety of CARPETS, English and Irish BLANKETS.—LINENS of a remarkable strong Texture, and very cheap. Cambricks, Muslins, Lawns, Table Linen, Towels, newest Damascus, Furniture Cheques, Bed Tickens of all Prices; Cotton Counterpanes, Coverlets, and Servants Quilts, Hooping for Mattresses, Sail-Cloth for Sacking Bottoms, striped Linen for Sailors Shirts and Trowsers; Tassels Line and Rings for Curtains; Dressing Glasses of every Size; Flannels, Swathes, and Cradle Blankets; Coffin Mounting and Shrouds, best Oak Coffins ready made and finished in any Manner, at the shortest Notice; all of which will be Sold at reduced Prices, for Ready Money ONLY.—A beautiful new fashion plated Epagne and Tea Urn to be Sold, May 7.

E. TUHY, respectfully informs his Friends and the Public, that he is encouraged to settle in this CITY, he teaches the VIOLIN, GERMAN FLUTE and GUITAR, in the most approved Methods, his Terms moderate, and his Attendance regular.

Any Commands left at the Printers, shall be duly attended to. Limerick, May 11, 1789.

Just arrived to FISHER & HARVEY,

60 Chests TEAS from last India Sales.
30 Hhds. Virginia WRAPPER TOBACCO
They have also for sale, a large Quantity of NEW AMERICAN FLAX SEED.
Limerick, 23d of 4th Month, 1789.

THOMAS BENNIS, SADDLER,
Nearly opposite the Main-Guard, LIMERICK;

Respectfully informs his Friends and the Public, that he commenced Business, and has this Day arrived to him from London and Dublin, an elegant Assortment of GOODS, which he will Sell on the most reduced Prices, for Ready Money, and hopes by his Knowledge and Attention to merit the Countenance of those who will honour him with their Commands.
N. B. An APPRENTICE is wanted.
May 14, 1789.

FRENCH PERFUMES

Just arrived per the Peggy, Captain Durack, to
MAC SWEENEY, HAIR-DRESSER, No. 6,
Bridge-Street, LIMERICK.

MAC SWEENEY, grateful for the Favours he has so fully experienced from the Ladies and Gentlemen of this City and its Vicinity, takes this opportunity of informing them, that he has a large supply of ESSENCES, Pomatums, Washes, Soaps, Spirits, Waters, and Powders, of all kinds, and superior to any ever imported in this City—in Quality and low Price, which he is determined to Sell upon such Terms, as he thinks there will be no occasion of offering a second Price. N. B. Long Braides and Tails on good Terms
May 14, 1789.
Good FURNISHED LODGINGS.

WHEREAS a young Woman,

black Hair, fresh Complexion, middle Stature, hired with me as Servant, by the name of Eleanor Kinnavane, said she was from Tomgreany, co. Clare, about 24 years of Age, has Stolen from my House a crimson beaver Cloak, with white Silk to the Collar, a black Calamanco Petticoat, with brown Stuffing, the lining pieced with different Colours, a Chintz Gown, and two Yards of the same, a printed Gown, a tea-green Cotton Ditto, a Marlelles Petticoat, and several other Articles, for discovering which and lodging her in any Jail within 6 Months, I will on her Conviction pay 10l. if said Goods were pawned, the Money will be refunded, on applying to Henry White, Esq; New Ross; or Mr. W. Ferguson, merch. Limerick; if found with any Person after this Notice, they will be punished according to Law. Ahane, 13th. JOHN SHEAHANE.

WHEREAS William Scully the

Elder, William Scully the Younger, James Hanine, Patrick Hanine, with several others, unlawfully assembled on the Lands of Ballyhoodane, in said County, on the Night of the 2d of March last past, and thereof feloniously drove and carried off six Cows, four Heifers, and nine Sheep, with other Stock, and withheld same on the Hill of Knockroe, in said County, guarded by a Parcel of idle improper Persons in Arms, in open defiance of Law, until the 30th Day of March, ensuing, when then said Stock of Cattle were drove and put into the Pound of Ballymacreefe, in said County, and delivered up to the Pound-Keeper of same.—And whereas on the said Night of the 30th Day of March, said several Persons assembled, and by the Encouragement and Protection of the Pound-Keeper, (as by clear Instances and Proof may appear) feloniously drove and carried said Stock of Cattle out of said Pound, and still feloniously secrets and with-holds same, all which was Sworn by Information before Walter Widenham, Esq; in resentment of which, and in perseverance of said unlawful Felony and Outrage, totally regardless of Law, said several Persons, on the Night of the 20th of April, last, burglariously entered the Dwelling-Houses of my Dairyman, and Herdman, at Ballyhoodane, aforesaid, and thereout feloniously carried Cash and other Matters to a considerable amount.—And said several Persons, on the Night of the said 20th of April, feloniously Stole from off the Lands of Ballyhoodane, aforesaid, one Cow and one Heifer, value 8l. sterl. and not satisfied, or by any means intimidated, but regardless of any Law, headed by three of the Neals, and said Scullys, before Sunrise of the Morning of the 8th of May, armed with Swords, Guns, and other offensive Weapons, entered in and upon the said Lands of Ballyhoodane, and thereof was feloniously driving and taking away ten Sheep and some Lambs, whetupon four of the Cuninghams who had the care and charge of said Sheep, Stock and Land, on their attempting to with-hold and preserve said Sheep and Lambs for their Master; a quarrel ensued, and thereupon said Cuninghams were so desperately wounded and cut by said Party, with said Swords, Guns, and Weapons, that they ever since languish and were rendered unable to go before a Magistrate to lodge Informations.

PROPOSALS to be received by Mr. JAMES M'MAHON, Kilmurty; who will close with good Tenant for either of the Houses or Mills as soon as the Value is offered.—A MILWRIGHT well recommended, will meet with every reasonable Encouragement from him to repair said Mills.
May 14, 1789.

WANTS a Place as Butler, o

Butler and Valet, in a genteel Family, sober steady young Man, about 30 years of Age understands the Side-board well, can Brew, and Dress Ladies and Gentlemen's Hair in the present Taste, having but lately come from England where he has been for three Years with a Family can be well recommended for Diligence, Sobriety and Honesty; has no objection to go abroad.

A Line directed for J. G. or to the Proprietor of this Paper, will be duly attended to.
Limerick, May 14, 1789.

LINEN BOARD.

SUCH Persons as are entitled to Premiums from this Board on the Cultivation of Hemp or Flax, in the County or County of the City of Limerick last Year, are desired to apply to Mr. DAVID DWYER, Jun. their Inspector for these Counties; who on proof that they are entitled thereto, will pay the same.
May 11, 1789.

City Limerick Annuity Society

Rev. EDMOND PALMER, President.

THERE are three Vacancies in this Society, to which healthy married Men or Bachelors will be admitted, on depositing the usual Fine with the Treasurer or Secretary. The Society has a certain Income of 330l. per Annum, which is now paid to fifteen Widows who will not be deprived of this Annuity, if they should determine on Matrimony. Dates this 12th May, 1789.

By order of the Committee,

[6p] A. WATSON, SEC.

TAYLOR's Table Beer Brewery

MR. TAYLOR begs leave to acquaint his Friends and the Public, that he has disposed his BREWING BUSINESS in such Manner as cannot fail of giving general Satisfaction.—Gratitude, for the kind Protection he met with hitherto, from such a Number of respectable Gentlemen, calls on him as much as his Interest, to devote his Attention entirely to please them, and assures them, and such others as are pleased to favour him with Commands, that he will be always supplied with a Stock of BEER, fit for immediate use, which on Trial, will be found as good, if not superior to any in the Kingdom.

N. B. To accommodate House-Keepers, he will be supplied with solid BARM, at 2d. per Quart, to be given out on Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Limerick, May 7, 1789.

TO BE SOLD,

FOR Payment of the remaining

Debts affecting the Estate of CHARLES M'DONNELL, Esq; the following Lands:
CORBALLY, containing - 473 Acres
CLOUNCULLEN, - 248
BRUSLA, - 696

all situate in the Barony of Moyarta and County of Clare.

For further Particulars, apply to THOMAS ARTHUR, and MICHAEL HEAD, Esqrs. Trustees under an Act of Parliament for Sale of the Lands, or to Mr JOHN O'BRIEN, Merchant, Limerick, who will give any further Information.
May 7, 1789.

FURNITURE COTTONS, CALLICOES, COUNTERPANES, CARPETS AND CARPETING,

AN elegant Variety of which is laid in by JOHN HOGAN, WOOLLEN-DRAPER, Limerick, with an extensive Assortment of Superfine, Refine, Livery CLOTHS, and MANCHESTER GOODS, all which he will dispose of on such Terms as will be pleasing to those who favour him with a Preference.
[One Month] May 4, 1789.