DUBLIN, JUNE 6.

The Marquis of Buckingham, we are credibly informed, on Wednelday patied the complinient congratulatory to Mr. Firzgibbon, on the moral certainty of his elevation to the Woolfack.

It is the general opinion, that though his Majesty's FIAT for appointing a Chancellor to this kingdom, will arrive here in the course of next week, the making out of the Patent, and other formalities, will be delayed until the end of Trinity Term, which begins on Monday next, in order to put an end to, as much as possible, the business depending in Chancery.

A gentleman in this city, who moves very confucuously in the political hemilphere, has within thefe few days laid a wager of 500 guineas, that Mr. Frzgibbon will be the perfon appointed Chancellor of this kingdom.

We have authority to fay that no changes have yet taken place in the Barrack Board.

The Dublin Packet, which, upwards of 12 months ago, failed from Philadelphia for this port, has been a missing thip, it was generally thought that the had foundered at fea ; -Thursday morning, however, it is faid, the was captured on her passage by the Moors, and brought into Sallee, and the crew immediately fent into flavery, where every communication was precluded :- At length three of the failors, (who are those who brought the account) having escaped to the fea fide, feiz d a boat, and got fafe to the coast of Spain, from which they are just arrived.

The Dublin Packet was the property of Meffrs, Leckey and Willon, of this city, and was remarked as one of the best failors that ever left Dublin harbour. She has, more than once, performed her voyage from Philadelphia to Dublin, in twenty-one days.

The infulting depredations continually committed on the liberties and properties of all nations, in plundering their thips, and carrying their fubjects into flavery, is a taunting reproach to the political tenacity of the Christian powers of Europe, who through a jealoufy of each other, fuffer continual hostilities from this nation of Pirates, without crushing them at

Thursday being the anniversary of his Majesty's birth day, it was observed here with every demonstration of joy. The morning was ushered in with the ringing of bells, the thips displayed their colours, at one o'clock the 15 h regiment of foot, under the command of Col. Myers, marched to Newtown-Perv, where they fired three vollies, between each of which was a falure from the two field pieces of the Royal Artillery attached to this Garrison ; - and at night the Barrack was grandly illuminated,

Last Wednelday evening, a Woman of the name of Ryan, was found murdered in a field between Kildimo and Curragh bridge, the had a flab on each fide of her throat, which was quire black-this horrid fact is believed to be perpetrated on Sunday night or Monday morning, by her hulbred John Ryan, who for forne time cohabited with another woman; -- diligent fearch is making after him by the neighbouring Gentlemen.

A CAUTION - Last Friday Mr. O'Brien, High Constable, apprehended John Ryan, a notorious Coiner and Swindlers he was committed to the City Gaol by that aclive Magif trate, Alderman Widenham, - being charged with lately defrauding some poor people in this City and County, to the amount of one hundred Guines ; his practice has been to leduce the unwar, to give him a number of real Guineas, and he would double them with Counterfei s that should bear the nicest inspection; he made the perion turn his back to him while he heated a good Guinea and put it in a Cup, wherein waa folution of quickfilver which made it white, then shewed it in that flate to the Gull, in whole prefence it was brushed off with aquafortis, then fent to be weighed and disposed of,
