"I return the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Civizens of Limerick many Thanks for their very kind Address-and request of them to be affored that it shall be my first Object, by a feithfal discharge of the Dovies of that high Trust which His Majesty has been graciously pleased to commit to my Care, to prove myfelf to be not unworthy of heir Confidence; and good Ely Place, July 31, 1789 Opinion."

Our new Bank opened last Thursday with a degree of fpirit, which evinces how much fuch an Inflitution was wanted in this city, and how Terviceable it will prove to town and equatry. The Public have already placed an unlimited cochdence in this Bank, and lodged feveral thousands of Pounds in it; and fuch perions as had occation for cash on the opening day, were highly pleafed with the concalisting manners of the proprietors. The trade and confequence of Ireland, is now burfting out like the brilliant fun from a dark cloud, and will daily increase while men of rank and property are found to embark in commerce, whose never failing fource cannot be exhaulted or dried up.

A letter from Mr. Richard Alley, who is appointed Surgeon to the Ledy Juliana transport: now in the Downes, under failing orders for Port Jackson, in Botany Bay, fays, "On board this veffel there are two hundred and twentyeight females, belides children-the youngest convict is but is years, the oldest 68 .- A ship of war, of 44 guns, commanded by Captain Ryan, goes out with provisions for the fettle-
