LONDON,

JANUARY 21—22—24.

Americans have ratified a Commercial with the Court of Portugal, highly advantageous to themselves, but said to militate very much against the interests of some of the European Powers.

A letter from Vienna, dated Jan. 5, says:—"The friendly intercourse between our Court and that of Berlin is gaining daily strength; and that the negociation between a Prince of Prussia for a marriage, which is far advanced." [illegible] one of the Four Friends, Holm, from Nantz to [illegible] is lost off the Isle of Wight, and all the crew drowned.

The Thomas and Ann, of Plymouth, with [illegible], is on shore near Boulogne. Crew missing.

Johnson, the Pugilist, by his recent defeat forfeits the two guineas per week allowed him by the Jockey Club, which he was to enjoy during his life, if he was not beaten before he had attained the forty third year of his age.

Johnson we understand, has already signified his intention of challenging Big Ben to a second conflict in six months time, for five hundred pounds.

A machine for the extraction of foul air has been invented, and is now before the Lords of the Admiralty. It will be highly serviceable as a nautical improvement, particularly in ships of war and transports.

DUBLIN, Jan. 29,

At the late quarterly examinations held in our University the following gentlemen obtained Premiums, viz. Kennedy sen. Davenport, Waggett, Blacker jun. Mr. Blachford, Rainey, Kennedy jun. Marshall jun. Lockwood, Mr. Hamilton 3rus. Pennefather sen. Pennefather jun. Ryan jun. Whiteside, Mr. Freke, Ewing, Ellis 4rus. Chichester, and Lafroy.—At the same time the following gentlemen were appointed Moderators of the class of Candidate Bachelors, viz; Worrall, Keane, Callanan, Lindow, and Tisdall sen.

The endeavours of Parliament at the present sitting, to check the injurious and alarming progress of mis use made of spirituous liquors, are in the highest degree patriotic, and it was with infinite pleasure, we found the subject introduced in the house of commons, by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the removal of the evil patronised under sanction of the state. Whatever benefit the revenue might be supposed to obtain, from the extension of the distilleries, the object is thought infinitely inferior to the great purpose of making a reformation in the morals of the people, and the consequent success of industry and trade. It is with the Commissioners themselves, to give a check to the enormity of this mischief; and we may soon after expect, that the improvement of the malt brewery will be the salutary effect which must follow.

VICEREGAL BANQUET.

The concert and supper at the Castle, on Tuesday evening, given by their Excellencies of Westmorland, to the nobility and gentry, drew together one of most brilliant assemblages of rank and fashion that ever distinguished the Viceregal residence.

The rooms, which have been for some time preparing, were laid out in such elegant stile of ornament, as caught the admiration of every beholder, and demonstrated the superior taste of their Excellencies, under whose [illegible] they were embellished.

LIMERICK.

HIGH SHERIFFS, 1791.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant has been pleased to appoint the following Gentlemen to be High Sheriffs for the present year:

— [illegible] Oliver, Esq;
— [illegible] Hoskin, Esq;
— [illegible] of Turf-[illegible] Esq;
— Richardson, [illegible] Hamilton, of Cattle Hamilton, Esq;

Sunday evening a dreadful affray took place in Killarney, between the military and townspeople about fighting cocks. The mob assembled about the house in Bowchencate, where the [illegible] were quartered, and broke all the windows, [illegible] Christmas, of the 18th Light Dragoons was killed down in the street, and it is feared the brid[illegible] his note was broke. The soldiers fired from their [illegible] ing, and wounded several of their assailants, and thereby dispersed them. The [illegible] then came out of the house, and fired several rounds into the street, whereby a daughter of Maurice Tangny, and a daughter of one Scanlan, a taylor, being in the street, were both killed on the spot, and several others desperately wounded.

Last week, they had severe thunder and lightning near Lismore: and a ball of fire we are told fell on the house of Maurice Harnett, at Irramore, in that neighbourhood, which consumed the house, and scorched an elderly woman who could not readily escape, and burned two cows to death.

Last Wednesday, one John M'Carthy, of Knockanaufig, near Lismore, was drowned, as he was crossing the river Feale.

Sunday, John Mason, Esq; seized some sugar and Coffee, which were coming to Tralee from Kilmore, and carried it back to the cargo. A large party of the military still continue at the vessel to preserve the property of the unfortunate sufferer. The captain, who is owner, it is thought will lose 4000l. The captain, who is owner, it is thought will lose 4000l. The cargo is computed at 10,000l.

On Thursday evening last, were committed to our county gaol, by Edward Croker of Kilmallock, Esq;—John Sullivan, alias Hardy-boy, and —— Sullivan, his son, both charged with the barbarous and wilful murder of Roger Rice, on the 28th of December last, near Kilmallock, in this county; also Andrew O'Neil, for sheep-stealing. By Christopher Sanders, Esq;—John Quin, charged with horse-stealing.—They were conducted from Ballyneety to gaol, by Mr. O'Brien, high constable, and a party of the 69th regiment.

On Friday last was committed to the county gaol, by Walter Widenham, Esq; Lewis Bermingham, charged with horse-stealing.
