LIMERICK.

Monday last, an order was received by the Sheriffs of this city, to stay the execution of Philip Dwyer, who was to be hanged on the 22th inst, pursuant to his sentence at our last affizes, for street robbery.

Yesterday—Brett was executed at Waterford, pursuant to his sentence at the last affi-zes held there, for a robbery in the counting-house of Newport, King and Newport.

Nothing is more destructive to the finer garden fruit, than the large breeding wasps;—at this season, they are easily caught, by the following simple method—tipping with birdlime a few hazel-twigs.

THE Honourable the House of Commons having a few Days ago ordered, that the Clerk of the Crown of the different Counties and Cities in this Kingdom, should lay before said House, on the first Day of the next Session, returns of the Names of the several Persons against whom Indictments have been preferred by Grand Juries, who have not been tried on the same in the last ten Years, the Offences with which they were charged, and their respective Abodes. Now I Christopher Gaff of Askeaton, in the Co. Limerick, Gent. and several others, do stand indicted in the Crown-office of the said County, as of Lent Assizes 1786, for unlawfully assembling, assaulting, and other offences, alleged to be committed by me and others, against Michael Slattery, James Bryson, Malcolum Cameron, John Love, James McQuaine, James Ross, James Faulkner, William Swanson, Donald M' Donald, and Donald M'Intosh, near Askeaton, and at Rathkeal, in said County, on the 2th and 6th Days of November, 1785: In obedience to the said Order, and to prevent the Honourable the House of Commons, from any Trouble, with respect to a return of the said Indictments to them, from the Clerk of the Crown of the said County, I do hereby give this Public Notice, that I have this Day, entered into Recognizance before a Magistrate of the said County, with sufficient Sureties, to stand and abide my Trial, at the next general Assizes, and general Gaol Delivery, to be held at St. Francis' Abbey, near Limerick, in and for the said County, for the said alleged Charges or Offences, to evade which, I never absconded, but always since, publicly appeared in this Country and different Parts of the Kingdom, and would have long since surrendered myself to the Laws of my Country, and abide my Trial for said alleged Charges, had the said Prosecutors, or any of them, or any other Person on their behalf, issued a Capias, or taken any other Proceedings against me for that purpose; and least this should not be deemed sufficient Notice to my said Prosecutors, and all others concerned, I am determined on a future Day, again to publish my Intentions, in this and
