and adulter one titor took bises erday in the King's Bench Prifon, which anot quelled without the interference of the filitary - It originated in an application to he Marshal to liberate Colonel Harrington, ho has been eight minth's closely confined, which was not thought proper to be complied with-and the mellenger, Major Pitcairn, who ent with the request, was kept a close priperi. This very much exasperated the reft them, and they affembled in a riotous manon the parade, where the Deputy Marshall his then went, and attempted to feize e of the ringleaders, but they were bear off Greireated between the doors of the prifon, tring the inner one after them; they then rocured arms; and again went on to the paide, when, in order to intimidate the rioters, wa musquets were fired off; but it was not bf ny avail, as it rather increased than suppressd the rigt; they therefore, again retreated between the doors, where there is a forall yard, contaced by a wall of about 12 feet high; over this wall the prifaners, to the amount of goo, who were there affembled, threw brickbats, &c. and, it is faid, fractured the feulf of one of the men employed under the Marshal, and others were severely bruised. By this time a party of the Life Guards, to the number of 30 or to arrived, in confequence of a meffage, fent from the prilon to Mr. Justice Wright; and thorrly after a detachment of the Foot Guards, confisting of fifty men, who marched into the rifon, and feveral of the priloners were fecured,

The diffurbances in the King's Bench Prison have happily subfided. Only two men attempted to escape, one of whom was shot though the hand, and both were retaken from the circumstances of the business, we attempt to escape was evidently an after nought.

The Attorney Gene- yellerday applied to the court of King's bench, and obtained an abtologic rule for the immediate removal of several of the rioters at the King's Bench Prison, the principals to Newgate, and the abettors to the New Gaol. He stated that the soldiery were yet obliged to keep guard there, night and day.

Friday died at his feat at Shavington in Shropthire, the Right Hon. Lord Vilcount Kilmory.
