Thursday came on to be tried, in the court King's Bench, an action, which may be confidered of very material coulequence to the trading part of the community ; the action was brought for the recovery of the amount of a promiflory note, which had paffed into the Plaintiff's hands after the promifiry note had become due ; and the defence fet up was, that the note was not negotiable, as it was not paffed to the plaintiff till after it was due. In the course of the trial the utage and cuftom of merchants respecting promiflory notes and bills of exchange, were fully and clearly laid down, and the Jury found a verdiet for the plaintiff, with fixpence coft.
