A C A R D

FOR THE CITIZENS OF LIMERICK.

When we see our Countrymen make the most laudable exertions to diffuse a spirit of religion and industry among the lower orders of the people—When we see such collectors as attend at the last Charity Sermon, of St. Mary's, in Dublin, His Grace the Duke of Leinster, the Right Honourable Mr. Latouche, and the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, who collect ed near 700l. that day for that salutary end—When a whole nation and every great city therein, unite in one common cause, they seldom fail to succeed.—We may therefore reasonably expect a general reformation in the morals of the present and every succeeding race. The rich shall enjoy the gifts of Providence undisturbed, and the lower orders shall be industrious, content, and happy.—May our thriving city follow such bright examples, and may Sunday next exhibit a brilliant assemblage of Christians of every rank, united in the glorious cause of promoting the happiness of their fellow creatures, the Children of Misery.

Whatever you do to these little ones in my name, you do also to me."
