

is to take place next Spanish Academy is y to explore Mant
 certainty whether the
 that old gentleman as tion that his Honors
 litical fever, on ear-es, aided by Gustavus
 to fight his battles in hismaric subjects, nec dominion of the Holy uidating the National
 sters friends to the exhibition of Tippoo England—but many
 t whether he be yet
 uary will tell a great

Hon. Major Hbart,

hn Cherry, Printer, to rabane.—Mr. Charles street, to Miss Anne Robert Cooke Esq;
 rince of Wales' Light
 affe, daughter of Sir Cuffe, Bart. of Lyrath,
 e Right Hon. Robert
 etary to his Excellency
 o the Widow Alderly, lerty, Esq; so many entatives in Parliament
 ughnakilty.

Mr. Bernard Mark-erk of the Crown and Tipperary.—Sddenly, Dr. Campbell of this William Lockwod, Esq.

n Friday night last a boys came to the house Inniscarra Bridge, and

The Favorite, Hastings, from Liverpool for this Port, put into Workington the 26th Ult.
 all well.

Last Wednesday Robert Enright, of Rath-keal, hatter, going from said town to Newcastle, fell from his horse into a dyke, and was unfortunately drowned.

At a General Meeting of the Company of Undertakers for making the River Shannon Navigable, held yesterday, the following Gentlemen were elected the Committee for the ensuing Year;—Robert Maunsell, Andrew Welsh, William Marritt, Anthony Lefroy, Sir Matthew Blackiston, Bart. Stephen Roche John, Thomas Arthur, Hugh Brady, David Dwyer, and Francis Arthur, Esquires.

BIRTH. Last Monday, at Newtown-Pery, the lady of Chidley Coote, of Ash-Hill, in the county of Limerick, Esq; of a Son-and-Her.

PORT-NEWS. Jan. 2. Arrived the Dolphin, Jones, Bastable, bark.

Gentlemens' English HATS.

JAMES RYAN, has last Saturday imported a large Assortment of Gentlemens HATS from LONDON, and intending to continue and extend himself in that Trade, hopes for public Encouragement by importing only such Hats, as will he hopes give Satisfaction to the Purchasers. He has also received from London

Fashionable Ladies HATS,
 Black and Brown Childrens' Do.
 And is now well Supplied with MUSLINS, SATINS, and TABYNETTS.
 MUFFS, TIPPETTS, and FURRS.
 Brussells LACES, and EDGINGS.
 RIBBONS, MODES, and SARNETS.
 DIMITIES, GLOVES, and STOCKINGS.
 LINENS, LAWNS, and CAMBRICKS engaged.
 N. B. A very great variety of Wedding, Mourning, and Funeral Apparatus.
 Jan. 4, 1792.

English State Lottery.

Commences Drawing FEBRUARY 20, 1792.
 SCHEME L.

AUCT

Limerick, (Wednes)

THIS Day at AUCTION of &c. &c. begins at the Church, and will
 Wednesday and Thu
 Week the Goods on Sale; and any Good to 3 o'Clock each D excepted) being the
 —The Goods intende

SHOP GOODS,
 Cotton Hankerchief Printed Cottons and mancoes; Cotton
 Cassimere, a Piece o
 Green Cloth, Grey
 Brown Stuffs, &c.

For Thursday, at &c —One large Mah
 half pair Mahogany fast Tables, 2 and ha Cherry Tree, an ex
 a Wine Cooper, 2 C
 Kegs and Cannisters
 Candle Moulds, a C
 and Spice Mill, a C a Copper Gallon an
 two pair Gold Seals
 with upwards of 20
 several other Article

To be Sold

(To be

N
 I HEREBY ca
 MARGARET
 Credit whatioever
 mutually parted.—

Present, M. EN