ON the Night of the 6th Instant, a violent Attack was made upon the Dwelling-House of the Rev. Mr. PALMER, of CLONMACKIN, by a Gang of most desperate Robbers. Fortunately however, their assault was repelled, and their felonious designs frustrated by the defence made on the part of Mr. Palmer, and two young men his servants. It is to be lamented, that at a period, when the arts of Industry call forth the labours of the poor, to useful and profitable employment, so many instances of Robbery should occur, as have of late. In order therefore, to put a stop to such atrocious practices; We the under-signed Inhabitants of this City and its Liberties, confiding in the Magistracy of said City, and of the neighbouring Counties, do now call upon them to exert their wonted efforts, in the apprehension of the above Gang, and to hold them out as examples of punishment to the community. And in further aid thereof, we hereby offer a Reward of such Sum as is annexed to each of our Names, to any Person or Persons, who shall within 12 Calendar Months from this date, apprehend and prosecute to Conviction, said Robbers, and so in proportion for each and every of them as shall be Convicted.
