

on Friday last, to as respectable perhaps were ever
 ay morning, a fire one Landrekin, a in Middle Liffey-el. Two women n drawn from the spectacle; a child ed. By what we dent, the fire ori- of a school-mis- or, who indulging a book, unfortu- candle communi- ed clothes set them he furniture, &c. d destroy the ill- ligned Mr. M'Car- with another in- to make a precipi- t houses, the latter n his arms. The ate assistance, ex- house wherein it d to a mere shell. week, at Ballina- ayo, the Seat of of his labourers en suffocated from where they slept: ce arose from a there was no chim- ated air.
 room, all of whom the skillful means our of them were the others baffled which skill could oy; the organ of ed to act, that no

the abodes of the he above (which is ight to be generally have an opportu- e are well informed, 6th of April next, merits of the an-means got out. And on Wednesday morning his body was found, by accident, in the river at the New Bridge, where, it is thought he must have thrown himself in, as his hat was tied about his face.

The Limerick Chronicle.

L I M E R I C K.

On Wednesday this city was deserted by all ranks of persons, to attend the interment of the remains of Henry Vereker, Esq; whose fate will be ever lamented.—The train of carriages exceeded any idea of the numbers supposed to be kept in and about Limerick.—The melancholy which so strongly appeared on every countenance could only be equalled by the doleful murmur of execration at the prevalence of a barbarous practice, which, in this instance, has deprived society of a Gentleman of the most amiable disposition, beloved and respected by all who had the happiness of his acquaintance.

On viewing the Funeral Procession of HENRY VEREKER, Esq; on Wednesday last.

Ah me! what gloomy horror fills the air?
 I hear, alas! the voice of dire despair:
 'Tis he—'tis HENRY'S dear remains come on,
 An awful, solemn, melancholy throng,
 In grand procession thus attends his bier,
 The hardest heart sure now must shed a tear:
 HENRY adieu! thou dear ill-fated Youth,
 Possess'd of honor and unblemish'd truth;
 Oh! fatal honor—that—has caused thy fall,
 Snatch'd from the world by an untimely ball—
 Oh!—blasted ball—how cruel was thy aim,
 To sever from his friends, from wealth and fame,
 A Youth whose merit claim'd a kinder doom,
 But fate consign'd him for an early tomb.
 Accept this trifling tribute from a Friend,
 Who knew thy worth, and now laments thy end.
 AMICUS.

Since the commencement of our Assizes, in the County Court, John Sheehan, Maurice Nunan, and John Feheen, for having on the night of the 22d of December last, burglariously broke open the house of Thomas Murphy, at High-mount; and William Shanahan for a burglary and robbery in the house of David Barry, of Ballynaroga, on the night of the 30th a tedious illness, Mr. he was a young man much lamented by his nagh, sincerely lament —Last Monday at Be in a very advanced Father to Mr. Philip PORT-NEWS. M Whyte, Dublin, oat Greenock, oats.—Th London, provisions.— nock, oats.—The oats and provisions.— terford and Liverpool Fearon, Greenock, Amity, Williams, B Augusta, Conn, Liv

TO B BETWEEN from one year old upwa Gate, at 1 Guinea and DEANE FREEMAN, a (4 p.)

Mr. BATH informing the Publick, Gentlemen have Subsc enable him to Publish LIMERICK, that the Engraver's Hands; he such Gentlemen as m will be pleased to h Subscribers, at Mr. W Mr. HILL's, Printers, [Two Posts.]

THERE is a TIMBER TO BE SO LIMERICK.—Applicat ALLEN, at Mt. SHAN (2 p)

WOOLL DENNIS LE his Apprenticeship to M Quay, respectfully info that he has this Day C lately Mr. JOHN CE Main-Guard, where h general Assortment of by himself at the be Houses in DUBLIN Sell on pleasing Terms hopes by his Care and