Charlotte Briant, the second child of Wm.
and Mary Briant.

Wm. Allen is fifty five years old, he was convicted at Norwich more than six years ago, of stealing some handkerchiefs, the property of Messrs. Lewis and Haywood.

John Butcher is fifty years of age, he was convicted of stealing three pigs, the property of John Harbury, five years and a half ago at Shrewsbury.

Nathaniel Lilley, thirty-nine, he was capitally convicted five years ago, last March, at Bury St. Edmund, of stealing a watch and two spoons, the property of Benjamin Sumerset, privately in his dwelling, but there being favourable circumstances in his case, the Judge reprieved him on his agreeing to go for seven years to Botany Bay.

James Martin, 32 years of age, was convicted at Exeter six years and a half ago, of stealing some old lead and iron, in the whole about 20lb. weight, the property of Lord Courtney.

Mary Briant was convicted by the name of Broad, at the same assizes with Martin, of a street robbery, and a cloak, which being a capital offence, she received sentence of death, but was with two other women who were convicted of the same offence, pardoned on condition of their going for seven years to Botany Bay.

William Briant was convicted of interrupting some Revenue Officers in the execution of their duty, and immediately on his landing at Botany Bay married the above woman.

They were each sentenced to be transported for seven years.

It was remarked by every person present, and by the Magistrate, that they never saw people who bore stronger marks of a sincere repentance; and all joined in the wish, that their past sufferings may be considered as a sufficient expiation of their crimes. They all declared they would sooner suffer death than return to Botany Bay.

They were committed to Newgate:

The Grumblers, because Seringapatam was not taken, and a few thousand lives of their countrymen sacrificed during the siege, begin to grunt discontents. They tell us, that Tippoo is to pay considerably less money than the War has cost the public—but they forget to mention, among the articles of the Treaty, the small item—that TIPPoo is to give up HALF his DOMINIONS.

It is truly laughable to notice the absurd manœuvres of the Party. Thunderstruck at the speedy and glorious termination of the Indian War, they are determined, rather than not find fault, to act in the grossest violation of consistency—Thus, notwithstanding they were constantly railing last sessions of Parliament, against an extension of empire in India, they now, mirabile dictu are discontented, because HALF only of Tippoo's extensive dominions are gained by the Treaty.

In our Paper of Wednesday we gave an authentic detail of a Lady being murdered in Marseilles, because it was imagined that her husband had joined the Ex-Princes of France.
Such is the magnanimity of the French.—Let us turn to the generous American, too frequently insulted by a similarity of sentiment—When Arnold meant to devote the army under his command at West-point—nay, the whole disciplined force of the Americans—upon detection he fled;—Mrs. Arnold was left in his tent; great as the resentment which his conduct excited in the minds of his countrymen, it was not directed against an unoffending wo-

We have authority to announce that the Munster Circuit will not commence before the 26th inst. but the precise day is not determined.
Whereas Non-Subscribers to the County of Limerick and St. John's Hospitals frequently prevail upon the Governors to recommend Patients, by which a greater burden is laid upon those Charities than their funds are able to bear; and it is also apprehended that some Gentlemen may be prevented from subscribing, by finding that their Dependants and neighbouring Poor are received without Expence: The Governors and Governesses are therefore obliged to resolve, that they will not recommend any Patient, at the request of any Gentleman or Lady who does not contribute to the support of the Charities, unless Half-a-Guinea be sent with each Patient.

The distressed situation of the survivors of four men who were lately drowned in crossing the Shannon from Donals to Hermitage, is laid before the Humane: one has left a wife and several children, in the most helpless state, and another has left aged parents, whom his industry maintained.—Benefactions will be received by George Evans Bruce, Esq; Hermitage;— Stephen Roche John, Esq; Limerick; and the Printer hereof.—The receipt and distributions of the charity will be stated in this Paper:—
