PROCESSES for the Munster Circuit, with Blank Copies gratis, to be had at A. Watson's, King's-Arms, Limerick.

Last Saturday being the anniversary of the French Revolution, several numerous and respectable parties of citizens dined together in the taverns of this city and the outlets, where the memory of this great event was celebrated with festivity and good humour.—And yesterday the different volunteer corps, who mustered in considerable force, assembled at Stephen's-green, fired three volleys and gave three cheers, as they did afterwards in Sackville-street and on the quays, in honour of the day.

Cork, July 14. A few days ago, as a Miss Bosby, in company with Miss Lawton, (both of Rathcormuck) were going from that town, in a car, on a visit to the country, they got a most desperate fall, by which, we hear, Miss Bosby had both her legs and an arm broken.—her companion received no material injury.

Waterford, July 17. Arrived on Saturday, the Ponsonby, with Mr. Mrs. and Miss Oliver, and Miss Waller.—Sunday the Tyrone, with Sir Hugh Dillon Maffy and family, Counsellor Cooke, Capt. Miller, &c.—Sailed on Saturday the Wallingham, with Col. Buckridge, 64h.

LIMERICK.

The present month presents the husbandman with the most flattering prospect of abundant and rich crops of every kind—from the continued humidity of the season, grass has been every where abundant and thick, equally favourable to pasture, and hay, which must sell at very reduced prices the next winter.—Barley and wheat are luxuriantly promising, and by the present seasonable heats growing rapidly to maturity. Potatoes, the staff of life for the poor, are very plentiful, and of excellent quality. Roots, and vegetables in general, of every kind, are far from being scarce, dear, or bad—so that there is every reasonable ground to hope that the present year will be a

COMMITTED. To the County Gaol, the 14th inst. by James Gubbins, Esq; David Keilly, of Boherard, in this county, charged on the information of Grace Connell, of said place, for having, with others, on the night of the 30th June last, burglariously broke open the door of her dwelling-house, with an intent to murder her, as she believes.—He was guarded from the Bridewell of Hospital to our county Gaol, by the sub-constables of the baronies of Clanwilliam, Small County, and Ownybeg.—Last Friday, by Alderman Widenham, Francis Lehane, charged with feloniously stealing a Horse, the property of Samuel Harding, Esq;—also charged with stealing two Cows from Michael Russell.—Yesterday by same Magistrate, Nicholas Redmond, charged with counterfeiting his Majesty's Coin.

DIED. At the Franciscan Convent, on Tuesday morning, greatly regretted by his friends and acquaintance, the Rev. Patrick Hogan; a man of unaffected zeal and exemplary piety.
