Magistrate, who committed them to gaol, in order to take their trial at the next assizes.

Last week two fervant maids, in Mallow-jane, fought a duel with knives, one of them, unluckily, stabbed the other in the belly—the wound, it is feared, will prove mortal. This quarrel did not originate as most of our modern ones do, about girls or dice—it was a LOVE quarrel.

Married. Yesterday morning, at St. Peter's Church, Mr. John Mayberry, to Miss Catherine Dowman, of this city.

Died. Lately in the South of France, where he went for the benefit of his health, John Kennedy, of this city, Esq.—Last Thursday, in George's-street, Mr. Joseph Corbet, coach painter.—On Friday last, Francis Woodley Hodder, of Ringsbella, Esq.

During the storm on Tuesday se'nnight, a Cow, the property of Peter Hyfle, near Adare, was struck dead by lightning, and the stench from the animal was so pernicious, that it was impossible to take off the hide:—same day near Courtmatrix, a large tree was shivered in pieces, and several ridges of potatoes destroyed.

It may be essential to several of the Roman Catholics of this kingdom to be reminded, that the act of the last session, which allows further time to take and subscribe the oath required by the several laws passed for their relief, is limited to the 1st of November next; and that therefore the next ensuing assizes will be the only opportunity they can have in their respective counties (except at the Quarter Sessions of Dublin) of taking the benefit of said act. The several Clerks of the Crown will likewise recollect the necessity of having accurate rolls prepared for that purpose before they begin their circuits.
