COUNTRY NEWS.

July 25. On Monday evening, about ck, upwards of 60 journeymen coopers assembled round the house of Mr. Sta-Master Cooper, in Ferry quay-lane, dea journeyman, who worked under the d prices, on Stapleton's refusing to let come out, they threw stones at the , broke all the glafs, threatening that ould burn, or pull down the house;— out at an upper window, he was struck one in the face, which cut him deeply; formed that some of the assailants were in at the rear of the house, he took and fallied out; he struck one of his and cut him severely in the head—hus cleared his way, he ran towards te, whither he was still pursued, and ith stones; after receiving many blows, refuge in a house on Bachelor's quay, r. Alexander came speedily to his af-and rescued him from imminent dan-he same time he took three of his pur-custody, and conveyed them before a te, who committed them to gaol, in take their trial at the next assizes.

[2 p.] Limerick, 25th July, 1792.

TO BE SET,

FOR Eighteen Years, (during the Minority of Master CHARLES SMITH,) the House, Offices and Domain of CASTLE-PARK, within a mile and an half of Limerick, containing about 24 Acres, on which is an excellent Orchard and Garden in full bearing: Also to be SET about 100 Acres of the Lands adjoining, lately held by the late CHARLES SMITH, Esq; in his own hands.—Proposals to be received by GEORGE GOUGH, and PRYCE PEACOCK, Esqs. Limerick.
N. B. The Tillage and Meadow on the Lands will be Sold as soon as the Value is offered. July 21, 1792.

JAMES O'BRIEN,

HAVING other Business to attend, will Let for 31 Years, or longer if required, THOMOND-GATE BREWERY, now in full Business, with or without the Range of Buildings, Gardens, and Paddock, extending along the River side to the East of said Brewery; these Concerns are admirably calculated for carrying on the Porter or Ale Brewing, or Distilling Business on the most extensive Scale; the Malt-House floor is 271 feet in length, and 20 feet in width, with a Steep at each end, one measuring 100 Barrels, the other 80, over which are two Floors of the same dimensions; annexed to the upper Floor, are three convenient Kilns—first, 23 by 22 feet—second, 21 by 20—third, 16 by 13; said Kilns are bounded by Granaries, conveniently divided, of 75 feet by 43 in width for Malt, with which are extensive Stores, for Barley or any other Grain; the Brew-House has every convenience for large Ale Brewings, with a Water Cooler, holding 300 Barrels of Water, supplied by Pumps, and worked by Horses, as is the Mill for grinding. It has also large Yards, Stables, and every other useful Store, all enclosed with a covered Square, and fronting the Shannon, within a few Yards of which it is situated.—As there is no Distillery in or near Limerick, this must answer very well for the purpose.

The STOCK in said Brewery, consisting of Malt, Hops, Barrels, &c. will be Sold on letting the Concern, and reasonable time given for the Payments: Application to be made to Mr. JAMES O'BRIEN, who will clofe with a good Tenant as soon as the Value is offered:— As he means to continue Brewing till the entire is disposed of, his Customers may depend every attention will be paid to the Quality of his Ale.

N. B. A Parcel of LONDON PORTER, on Commission, is this Day arrived to Mr. O'BRIEN, on board the Greyhound, Capt. Dent.
