The reception of the Royal Family last night 1 at Covent-Garden Theatre shows that the fpirit of the people is unanimoufly loyal. Long may it continue fo. It is justified by the conduct of those to whom the homage of duty is now paid; and their fuccessors give hopes that they will copy the bright example, which alone in these times, when the factious and the ignorant are to bufy, can fecure to them that love and dignity which they will be entitled to by hereditary claim.

Two circumstances- contribute much to the progress of the French in Germany; the vast number of Frenchmen in that country ever fince the revolution of the Edict of Nantes; the descendants of French samilies, whatever countries they inhabit, ftill remain Frenchmen in language, manners, and affections. At Berlin only, we know on the best authority, that there are not fewer than 30,000 French. Another circumstance favourable to Revolution principles is the cultom of the Germans, even those who have houses and samilies, of dining at the Table-d'Hote. The men, therefore, are almost univerfally formed into dining clubs; and when pot-valiant are all friends to

By the Convention of Reichenbach, figned the 19th of October 1790, Great-Britain, Pruffix and Holland guarantee to the House of Austria the lovereig ty of the Belgic provinces. Should the French invade Brabant, is England to become a party in repelling the invasion? The answer is, that England stands guarantee under certain conditions; two of which are, that the franchifes of the Belgians, granted by the entree Joyeufe, should be reestablished and maintained, and that an amnefty should be granted to the Belgic infurgents. Have either of these conditions been observed? Report Says, No, no.

liberty.

Parliament, we are affured, will not affemble in this present year 1792.

We had lately a most tremendous account announced from authority, of daggers ordered by a gentleman at Birmingham; the fum and fubitance of which turned out to be that three manufactures figned an agreement not to execute an order for daggers under a certain price and that one of them having fent notice to government of the order, was told in answer, that he or any body might manufacture as many such daggers as he pleafed,

Died, On the 29 h of August last, at Up-Park Barracks, in Jamaica, Captain James levine, of the 1st Battalion Royal.

DUBLIN, October 29.

On Saturday last, Patrick Malone was executed at the front of the New Prifor, for robbery. Through the milmanagement of the executioner, in not fecuring one end of the sope infide the gaol, the unhappy man, after being launched from the board, was precipitated to the ground, and remained to long mo-Rionless as to be supposed killed by the fall .-A fcene of confusion followed this affecting aceident, the military in attendance having prefented their mufkete in order to intimidate the multitude from any attempts they might eventually make in favour of the proftrate malefactor; this circumstance spreading the utmost terror and diforder, great numbers were trodden under the leet of those haftening from the apprehended danger, and many were leverely burt.

The miserable sufferer being taken into the prison, foon recovered, not having received any very confiderable injury by the fall, which was broken by a quantity of rubbish and dirt near the jail .- An hour clapfed before he was again prepared for execution, and during this interval, we are informed, an ineffectual and a large Affortment of Beaver HATS fome of which

LIMERICK.

Monday one of the Hands of a Turf Boat going down the river, fell over board and was nofortunately drowned.

By inferting the the following lines, verbatim,

Mr. Watjon,

for the benefit of the benefit of the parties, you will prove your impartiality beyond any doubt at most, and lavour at least a Subfcriber-

On the Composing FREEHOLDERS. Bella, borrida bella.

Wretched certainly they they are And of most "Satanical kind" Who can refuse a proper share Of praise to writers to refin'd-

Who, fcorning argument, abuse, Defame, and joke with fuch civility, That we from them may learn to ule Much Attic Salt without feurrility-For the ben'fit of the ben'fit

Of Reason, Style, and eloquence, We hope for farther proofs of wit-From those gay Libellers of sense.

A Protestant Freeholder in our next;

MARRIED. Last Sunday at Ennis, Mr. John M Nemara, woollen - draper, to the amiable Milis Margaret Power, daughter of the late Mr. James Power, wine-merchant .-Last Friday, Benjamin White, of Milltown-Mills, Co. Tipperary, Efq; to Mils Spunner, of Milltown, King's County, a most amiable and accomplished young Lady, with a fortune of 3000l.

DEED. Yesterday evening, on Charlotte's-Quay, greatly and defervedly lamented Mils Scott, niece to the Right Hon. Lord Vilcount Clonmel; - the was a young Lady of the most refined education and of an engaging disposition; her illness, which was remarkably lingering, the bore with a truly christian refigna-

" If Virtue's shield could blunt the pointed dart "If Beauty's charms would footh his reftless heart, "If Heav'n's high will allow'd fuch things to be "The Tyrant Death had fure respected thee !

PORT NEWS, Oct. 29. Arrived the Favourire, Cambell, Bridgewater, bark .- The Sufannah, James, Briftol, bottles, glafs, dyeftuff, &c .- The Brothers, Renny, Chepftowe, bark, - 31. Sailed the Thetis, M'Neil, Liverpool, oats and butter.

THE MAYOR requests a Meeting of the EXPORTERS of CORN, at the EXCHANGE, on THURSDAY next, at the Hour of Eleven o'Clock. October 31, 1792.

WORTHY OF ATTENTION!

A CLUB of Tickets, value 200 Guineas, has been purchased this Day at

KING's-ARMS

LICENSED LOTTERY-OFFICE, near the Exchange, confifting of 10 Whole Tickets, 13 Half Ditto, 13 Quarters, and 50 Guinea Tickets-The Club will admit of a few more Subscribers at Two or Five Guineas each; and this being the most advantageous Club ever purchased, Adventurers will please to send their names immediately.

The Lottery begins Drawing on Monday the 12th of next Month, (November,)-At faid Office a Variety of TICKETS and SHARES are Selling at the lowest Prices; alfo WALKER'S LEGAL GUINEA TICKETS, by which may be gained 2100l.

Good Bills at any Date taken at legal Interest, for all Business carried on at the KING's-ARMS, By the Public's Obedient Servant,

ANDREW WATSON

Ladies and Gentlemens' Fashionable London HATS of Excellent Manufacture. JAMES RYAN, has this Day imported per the GREYHOUND, CAPT. DENT, from LONDON,

WORM POWDER.

NDREW WATSON, is largely supplied A with this valuable Medicine, and begs leave to remind the Public, that at this Scalon it is particularly Recommended. Experience has proved its fingular efficacy in the Jaundice, and Obstructions of the Liver, and the best Preparative that can possibly be given for the Small-Pox, either INOCULATED OF NATURAL .-If Ladies and Gentlemen, who refide in the Country, would keep this Medicine for the use of their Tenantry and the Poor, they would be the happy Infruments of faving many Lives at a very cheap Rate, as a Dose for a Child 4 years old cofts no more than 2d. h.

Limerick, October 31, 1792.

AUCTION FOR READY MONEY.

TO be SOLD by AUCTION, on MONDAY the twelfth Day of November next, at FAIRY-FIELD, near MOUNT-COOTE, in the County of Limerick, the STOCK of the late CHARLES COOTE, Efq; confisting of Hunters, Road and Cart Horses, Breeding Mares and Colts, Cows and Calves, (tome of which are of the English Breed,) large and Kerry, Fat and Store Sheep, Rams, Lambs, &c.-A confiderable quantity of Old and New Hay and Oats, and r Charle and Hories, will be Sold at fame time; also Wines of different kinds, in Timber and Bottle-The DEMESNE of MOUNT-COOTE, and part of ARDPATRICK, will be LET for four Years from the first Day of next May, Proposals to be received by Mrs. COOTE, at Archdeacon MAUNSELL's, Limerick; and the Rev. Mr. JAMES ELLARD, Kilmallock.

October 27, 1792.

I DO hereby acknowledge to have received from the Treasurers of the DUBLIN INSURANCE COMPANY against Fire, No. 33, NEW BUILDINGS, Dame-street, by the hands of John Talbot Ashenhurtt, Eig; their Secretary, Five Hundred and Twenty-four Pounds, being the full Amount of my Claim for Paper destroyed or damaged by the late Fire in my Dwelling-House in Cook-street; and from a perfect conviction of the honourable Conduct of the faid Company in the adjustment, when the necessary Vouchers were produced, I am induced voluntarily to offer this public acknowledgment. -October 23, 1792.

JER. SULLIVAN.

N. B. The faid Company think it necessary to inform the Public, that no other Person is authorized to transact Bufinels for them in Limerick, or the neighbouring Counties thereof, but ANDREW WATSON, Sole Agent to the Fire, Ship, and Life Infurance Companies, at the King's-Arms Lorcery-Office, Exchange, Limerick.

SARAH PHILLIPS,

Widow of the late JAMES HILL PHILLIPS, DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY;

CQUAINTS her late Husband's Friends A and the Public, that the intends to Continue the Business in the fame extensive manner he carried it on, and in order to have it Conducted with regularity and agreeable to law, the has engaged the PERSON that Superintended the Bufinels for feveral Years pall, who has been legally Qualified at the APOTHECARIES HALL, in DUBLIN. She therefore hopes the kind Preference so liberally thewn to her Husband will not be withdrawn from his Widow, as long as the ules every means in her power to merit a continuance of it,

The Executors intend speedily to Furnish those who are Indebted to the deceated with their Accounts, which it is expected will be immediately PAAD.

FURNISHED LODGINGS. Limerick, (10th Month) 24, 1792.

GEORGE DAVIS, Apothecary, BAAL's+BRIDGE-LIMERICK;

RATEFUL for the many and diftinguished Favours he has met with from his Friends and the differning Public, takes this opportunity of returning his most fincere Acknowledgements, and of acquainting them that from a defire of supporting an un-PARTNERSHIP with Mr. RICHARD MURRAY, late of Rathkeale, APOTHEOARY, "a Centleman of undoubted Abilities in his profesional line, having had a long experience therein, both in London and Dublin, and being larely appointed Inspector for the County of Limerick, by the Examiners of Apothecary's-Hall, Dublin -All Commands addressed to their House at Baal's Bridge, Limerick, will meet with a most particular attention. To affermen tento of sules

RE for th RE on or

A reque itate

C.

by the cumbe Annur PRIN near t Pump gentee Buline likewi House pleafin by Mr John L

Limeri Alfo a Tipper the Pr

FOR DAI the foll Repres

No. Nuse No. the pos N. B. will be the pre No.

The County between Propola BLAKE Clonene rick ; of Febr of Mou

PRO

Mr. W Hundre and Cu Miles o Feeding N. B and the April ne will be town, S Mr. CO