Such has been the progress of the Settlers in America, where the Sugar maple-tree has been planted, that in the short space of 12 months, they have been enabled to ship off to different parts of Europe some thousand hogheads of Sugar, of the most approved quality, untinged with the labour or blood of human Slaves;—some of this Sugar has been last week imported into this City by Messrs. FISHER & HARVEY, which we are happy to find has been favoured with the approbation of every purchaser.

By letters from America, we are informed, that John O'Donnell, Esq; a native of this City, was, at the last Election for Congress, returned one of the Representatives for the State of Maryland.—In the year 1785, Mr. O'Donnell settled in Baltimore with a valuable property, which he acquired after many years residence in the East Indies; his delegation to Congress, is no less honourable to himself than to his Electors, as their discernment is the object of their choice, evince, that their suffrages are given in favour of merit only.

DIED. Last Monday night, in Broad-street, Mr. Christopher Portley, an eminent Baker.
