come indispensably necessary, for all who wish well to the Prosperity of this Kingdom, to express their Abhorrence of such mischievous Opinions, and their firm Determination to support the Laws, and suppress seditious Publications tending to propagate such unconstitu- tional Doctrines.

6th. That therefore the Persons present at said Meeting, do become a Society, for discour- aging and suppressing seditious Publications, tending to Disturb the Peace of this Kingdom, and for supporting a due Execution of the Laws made for the Protection of Persons and Property.

Last Tuesday, a Coroner's Inquest was held on the body of Eleanor Callinan, of Sixmile- Bridge, in this County, when the Jury declared she died of Poison, administered to her the Saturday before by Bart. Hastings, her Hus- band, of or near Deer Park, in the County of Clare.—It seems the villain carried her to a Publick-house early in the morning, in order to give her share of a half-pint of whiskey, and in her part of that and some Ale, he gave her as much-poison as would destroy twenty.

Yesterday evening, Mr. Milward, Gaoler, discovered that the nine persons, six of whom were under the rule of transportation, confined in the County Crib, were attempting their escape; they had raised the grating off the common sewer, and at the moment of his ar- rival, some of them had entered therein.

At 11 o'clock this day, Patrick M'Cleary, Laurence Shiele, Abraham Clarke, Anthony Dogherty, and John Gallagher, were taken from the City goal, to Gallows-green, guarded by a strong detachment of the 34th regt. where they were Hanged, pursuant to their sentence, for a burglary in the house of the Revd. Mr. Palmer; they all behaved with becoming resig- nation, and confessed the crime for which they suffered.

MARRIED. A few days ago at Cork, Capt. Hamilton, late of the 34th Regiment, to Miss Atkins, daughter to the late Walter Atkins Esq; of that city.

BIRTH. On Wednesday evening, at his Lodgings, near Bank-Place, the Lady of Standish Grady, Grange, Esq; of a daughter.
