her fellow-servant and Geany, but as her testimony was not supported, little attention was paid to it.

The unhappy culprits died with the greatest composure, and were young men. This example should be a warning to all servants, too many of whom, we are sorry to say, shew very little gratitude or honesty to those who are supporting them; but take every opportunity to weaken the hands that procure them bread.

6.] We are happy to hear that Mr. Moore, who was lately shot in Bandon, is likely to recover.

On Monday last, the first Waggon set out from this City for Dublin,—it was drawn by six beautiful English Horses, of a very large size.

A servant maid from Harper's-lane, who had been to see the execution on Wednesday, was so affected at the awful sight, that she fainted, and was carried home in a state of in-... the 31st ult.—The Ceres, Donau, ... sailed from Gravefend the 2d inst.

On the 2d instant, a girl 9 years old, daughter to Mr. James Curtain, near Kallarney co. Kerry, had her scull blown to pieces; this dreadful accident happened in consequence of a loaded pistol being left carelessly in a cupboard, which another child took up and innocently perpetrated the melancholy deed!

Yesterday the General Quarter Sessions for this City commenced, before Anthony Dwyer, Esq; Assistant Recorder and the Bench of Justices, when a new Grand Jury was sworn in, as were the following Market Jury: Patrick Molony, Arthur Gloster, John Staunton, Martin Bluett, James Lyons, Edy Lasy,
William End, Peter Connelly, Joseph Barrington, Maurice Fitz-Gerald, Henry M'Ardeall, Michael Goggin.

It is a tribute due to vigilance and perseverance, that the City Grand Jury have resolved to return public Thanks to Mr. Phil. Russell, Clerk of the Market, for his constant attention to the different Markets of this City, and particularly for seizing all bad and blown meat, so injurious to the health of the inhabitants in general.

The poor Parishioners of St. Munchin's, return their most grateful acknowledgments to the Lord Bishop of Limerick, for his late very seasonable benefaction of eight pounds, distributed amongst them by the Minister of said Parish.

RECEIPT FOR LOWNESS OF SPIRITS.

Take an ounce of spirit of resolution, properly mixed with the oil of good conscience, infuse into it a spoonful of the salt of patience, distil very carefully a composing plant called OTHERS' WOES, which you will find in every part of the garden of life, growing under the broad leaves of disguise, some drops of this will very much assist the salts of patience in their operation; gather a handful of the blossoms of hope, sweeten these properly with the balm of providence; if you can procure any of the genuine cordial of true friendship, you will have the most valuable medicine that can be admnistered; but take care of a counterfeit kind, which is very common, is entirely different in its nature, though very like in its appearance, and whose proper name is self-interest; a small drop of this poisonous plant is sufficient to spoil the whole composition.—Make these ingredients into pills, which you may call pills of comfort; take one every night as you lie down to rest, and as soon as you awake in the morning.
