A Right Hos. Gentleman, who is a member of the English Parliament, and who is also at the head of Administration in this countryand whole exertions to promote the amity and confidence between both, and in a very peculiar degree, the prosperity of this, baving confidered this matter, did bring forward a bill in the English House of Commons for develting the Englith Commissioners of the management of those chates, and re-velling it in his Majeity.

Conforantly, however, to the conflictational principles of this country, it became necessary to pals a law for this purpole; and the object of the prefent bill was to well the title of their eltates in his Majelty - fubject in their dispolal to the control of the Irith Parliament.

The rents collectable from the effates, which at prefent remain unfold, amount to but 800l. a year; by this act an authority for their proper management would be established in Ireland, and their product of courfe rendered much more confiderable-belides many worthy families would be confiderably benefited by the

Leave was accordingly given - and the bill was prefented, and read the first time,

SATURDAY, JULY 6.

The CHAN. of the EXCHBQUER faid, that on Tuesday next he should bring forward his intended statement respecting the granting a civil lift; in the mean time, he had made out a great number of papers, which were more of a calculatory than official nature, and which should be left in the clerk's office for inspection of gentlemen .- He faid that on Tuelday, in the Committee of Supply, he should propole a vote for the civil lift. He then moved that the House do, on Tuefday next, refolve itfell into Committee of Supply, for the purpole of efectaining the quantum of the Civil Lift.

A thort eneverfation took place between Mr. Forbes, Mr. Vandeleur, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer, when the motion was agreed to.

Mr. Typp reported the bill for giving relief in proceedings upon write of mandamus, for the admission of freemen into Corporations,

-Ordered to be Engroffed.

Mr. GRAYDON moved, that the Committee on the revenue bill be empowered to receive a claufe for applying the duties on imported cotton thread, for the encouragement of hofiery, by paying bounties on cotton thread made in this kingdom for hofiers ufe .- The motion was negatived.

Read a fecond time, and committed for Monday, the bill for the relief of his Majesty's faithful fubjects, the Protestant Diffenters of this kingdom.

House adjourned to Monday.

Waterford, July 9. Latt Saturday a desperate affray took place between fome workmen employed in mending the road near Killoteran and a carman; one of the workmen was fo feverely wounded that his life is despaired of, and the carman was killed on the fpot.
