To Mr. Charles Lionel Fitz-Gerald, of Terlough, only Brother and Representative of George Robert Fitz Gerald, whose fate is sufficiently known, S I R,

MUCH as I know of you, yet I am still astonished at your false and malicious Advertisement, which has been particularly calculated to injure me, and could only come from such a flighty fellow. And whereas you set forth, "that on parting with me at the Fair of Ballinasloe, you entrusted me with a Sum of 132l. 19s. to pay to your Order in Dublin." I now, in this public manner, solemnly declare, that I never received such a Sum from you at Ballinasloe, nor did I promise to pay any Sum to your Order in Dublin, nor am I indebted to you one Shilling. I flatter myself that my conduct heretofore thro' life has been irreproachable, nor could any thing which should come from you, (where we are both known) injure me, yet,
