HEARTH-MONEY.

THE Second Clause in the Act of the latt Seffion of Parliament, for grant ng duties on Fire-Hearth:, which exempts houles of a certain description from the Duty, having been milconceived, and feveral perions who were not with a the description of those which the Act exempts, having unwarily fworn the Affidavit, required by the Aft to exempt them, it is thought necessary to give the following explanation;

The Claufe exempts a House containing not more than one Hearth, where neither the person or persons inhab ting it, nor any other person using it, hath, useth or occupieth for that year, any Land, Tenement or Tenements, or any COT-TAKE or CROPHOLD, for the Crop or by the Year, of their own or of others, of a greater YEARLY VALUE than 51. or is not worth tol. in GOODS or CHATTELS.

The words " HATH, ulesh or occupieth" include not only all that the person or persons may hold in his, her, or their own immediate occupancy, but also what may be held under them by others.

The words " Any Land, Tenement or Tenements, or any COT-TAKE or CROPHOLD, for the Crop or by the Year, of their own or of others," include all Lands, Houses, Tenements, Grazing, Con-acre, Potator-ground, Meadow-ground, Flax-ground, &c. &c. whether of their own or held together or feparate from one or more persons or Landlords, by Lease or at Will, for the Season, the immediate Crop, a Year, Years, or other Term or Time.

And their "YEARLY VALUE" is unequivocally what they would let for, at the full improved rent, either separately or together.

" Goods and Chattele" include all personal property, fuch as Household Furniture of all kinds, Money and Securities for Money, all Working, Fauming and Manutacturing Tools and Implements, all Goods, Raw or Manufactured, Provisions, Cattle of all kinds, the Crop of Potatoes, Corn, Hay, Flax, &c. whether growing on, or in, or fevered from the ground, the Value of a Leafe for Years in any Holding, Sec.

Therefore no House containing not more than one Hearth in which any person inhabits, who hath, wieth or occupieth any Land, Tenement, or any Cottake or Crophoid, &c. &c. shove the yearly value of 51, whether the rent or rents agreed to be paid amount to fo much or not, nor whether the rent be paid in Money or otherwise, nor whether the rent be paid or not can be exempted from the Hearth-Money, and though the perion may not have any holding worth 5l. a year, yet if he or the is in pollettion of property of the value of tol. though at the fame time, he or the may be in debt, the House is not exempted.

By Order of the Commissioners.
