Yesterday the above Troops fired three Vollies on their Parade, in commemoration of the landing of King William the 3d. in Ireland.

PORT-NEWS, November 5. Arrived the Favorite, Hastings, Workington, coal.

BIRTH. This morning, in Dominick-street, the Lady of Falkner Minchin, Esq; of a Son.

MARRIED. Last week, at Lake Ville, near Killarney, Lieutenant Hoffer, of the 34th Regiment, to Miss Mullins, daughter of Thomas Mullins, Esq; of Burnham, Co. Kerry.

DIED. Last Saturday, George Westropp Esq; son to Ralph Westropp of Attyfin, Esq; Ensign in the 5th Regt. of Foot; he was a young Gentleman of an amiable disposition, whose death is sincerely regretted by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance—Monday, very much regretted, John Westropp, of Rockfield, Esq.

To the Memory of George Westropp, who Died Nov. 2, 1793.

Oh! GEORGE, it rends my heart to hear thy knell,
To bid my early friend a last farewell;
At Newcastle, how often have we strayed,
In LOCKE'S Demesne, and in CARMOYLE'S sweet mead,
To CANADA'S bleak wilds how soon you rov'd,
And then returned to meet your friend below'd;
Return'd to make your tender Parent's blest,
And then to flee to everlasting rest!
Oh! GEORGE it rends my heart to hear thy knell,
To bid my youthful friend a last farewell.

PUBLIC THANKS.

At a Meeting of the Directors of St. Mary's Charity School, on Sunday Evening, the 3d of November.

JOHN FERRAR, Esq; in the Chair.

RESOLVED, That, impressed with the liveliest Feelings of Gratitude, we return our warmest Acknowledgements to the Rev. Mr. Goonan, for his excellent Sermon, to the Liberal Public, for their generous Contributions, in Aid of the most exalted of all Charities, 'The Support and Education of unprotected Youth, and their consequent attainment of a virtuous Maturity;' but particularly to our worthy and respectable Chief Magistrate, Henry D'Esterre, Esq; the Sheriffs and Corporation, to Sir Matthew Blakilton, Bart. Lancelot Hill, Stephen Roche, jun. and Paul Rochford, Esqrs. Collectors, and all the other Dignified Personages who attended; for their distinguished Liberality and Co-operation at the CHARITY-SERMON of this Day; also to Mr. Garton, and all the Musical Gentlemen who so successively exerted themselves on this occasion. The best return we can make to all is to tell them in the Language of Job, they have been truly "Fathers of the Poor," and in their own humane hearts, they must ever feel the truest and best reward.

They humbly request that those benevolent Ladies and Gentlemen, whose attendance has been prevented by the inclemency of the Day, other Engagements, will forward their Benevolent Contributions to any of the Rev. Clergymen at the several Churches or Chapels; to either of the Collectors or Directors, or to Mr. James Ryan, Manufacturer to the Charity.

The Directors of St. Mary's Charity School, with the utmost gratitude, acknowledge the receipt of two Guineas some days since, from Rev. Mr. Wardlaw, per hands of Rev. Mr. Hogan, and of Eighty-six Pounds sixteen Shillings, since last Saturday.
