

the support of numbers of Tradesmen and Artificers.—Limerick and its neighbourhood surely can boast of as great an assemblage of Female Beauties as ever graced any Publick Rooms; and were they to countenance an amusement so novel, they would readily be attended by every Man of Fashion.—It also happens critically, that at this time an unusual number of Military Gentlemen are quartered in Limerick, who it must be presumed, are well acquainted with the Entertainment recommended.

On Friday last, Henry Hewitt, Esq; was admitted an Attorney of the Court of Common Pleas.

Last Monday, Patrick Callinan was trepanned in the County Limerick Infirmary, for a very extended fracture, with profound depression of the coronal bone, and notwithstanding that for fifteen days after the injury no help was sought for, his symptoms seem favorable.

The Rev. Deane Hoare, Treasurer, acknowledges the Receipt of ten Guineas, this day, (Feb. 12) from a Gentleman unknown, for the Use of the County of Limerick Infirmary.—The above came too late for last Paper.

Yesterday, A. Watson received half a guinea from Miss Callinan, per Mr. E. Browne, for the use of the House of Industry, and Hospital for Lunatics.

DIED. On Friday last, in Dublin, the Rev. Charles Coote, D. D. Dean of Killfenora, in the Diocese of Killaloe.—Sunday night, at her lodgings, in Mary's-street, Mrs. Wallace, aged 85 years, relict of the Rev. John Wallace, late Minister of the Presbyterian Congregation of this City; during an age, which few arrive to, she evinced a heart replete with every virtue, the most affectionate Wife, and a Parent devoted entirely to the improvement of her numerous offspring, by whom, as well as by an extensive acquaintance, she is sincerely and deservedly regretted.—In Gaol-street, Ennis, deservedly regretted, Mrs. Green, wife of Mr. Henry Green, attorney.—This morning, at the Navigation-House, Mr. Stephen Dunn, General Overseer of the Navigation Works, a young Man of the fairest character.

Drawing begins next Monday.
