

Grand Jury for County Tipperary, sworn in on Monday last at Clonmel:—John Bagwell, Esq; Hon. J. H. Hutchinson, Rich. Pennefather, Esq; Stephen Moore, of Barn, Esq; Thomas Barton, Esq; Sir Robert Waller, bt. Peter Holmes, jun. Henry Prittie, jun. Samuel Perry, Nicholas Sout. Manfergh, John Palliser, Michael Hammerton, Cooke Otway, Richard Lockwood, William Minchin, Thomas Stoney, John Willington, James Scully, Samuel Alleyne, Henry White, Laurence Smyth, Simon Pepper, and Thomas Prendergast, of Ballylemasny, Esqrs.

Tuesday last, at Clonmel, Patrick Meskill was tried and found guilty for the murder of one Dwyer, and received sentence—he was executed on the Thursday following.

Candidus would have had a place in this day's paper—if we were not convinced, that by doing so, we should add to the discord which unfortunately has appeared among the respectable Society, who so much to their honor signaled themselves at the late Charitable Concert.

MARRIED. Last Thursday, at Athlaccra Church, James Bouchier, of Kilcullane, Co. Limerick, Esq; to the very agreeable Miss Cudmore, daughter to Paul Cudmore, of Ballymartin, in said County, Esq,

JOSEPH ANDERSON, begs leave to inform the Nobility and Gentry, that there will be an ASSEMBLY on Wednesday and Friday Nights next, being the Assizes Week.

Admittance 2s. 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. each.—Doors opened at 7 o'Clock. Limerick, 12, 1796.

GEORGE HENCHY'S
NEW GARDEN SEEDS are arrived to him this Day, per the MARY. Limerick, March 12, 1796.

£. 1400 WANTED, on Assignments of Mortgages, on an Estate in the County Clare, particularly well circumstanced.—Application to be made to JOHN FITZ GERALD, Esq; Limerick. March 12, 1796.

MAURICE FITZ-GERALD, GOLD-SMITH AND JEWELLER, BRIDGE-STREET, LIMERICK,
HAS received a Fashionable Assortment of SILVER, PLATED, and JEWELLERY, from England and Dublin, of the best Kind, and on such Terms as enables him to sell as cheap as any House, consisting of Bread Baskets, Coffee Urns, Cruets of every shape, Epergnes, Branches, Candlesticks, Fish Knives, Snuffers, Stands, Coasters, and Egg Stands, the Silver Work well finished; long Experience, regularly bred to the Business, with the very ample Support his kind Friends and the Public were pleased to give him, he solicits a further Continuance of.—He gives in Cash, or Exchange, the highest Price for Gold, Silver, and Lace, &c. (3 p) March 12, 1796.

Fashionable HAT WARE - HOUSE,
NO. 14, CHARLOTTE'S-QUAY, FERGUSON,
AT THE MILITARY HAT,
IS now capitally Assorted with LONDON BEAVER HATS, in an elegant Style, for Ladies, Gentlemen, and Children } Patent Glazed and Plain Do. for Servants; Black, Blue, Scarlet, White and Mixed Superfine Cloths; Fancy Waistcoating, and Breeches Stuffs; Brighton Beaver, for Great Coats; Silk, Plated, Cotton, and Thread Stockings; Indian and Irish Mullins, Callicoes, Mullinets and Dimities; Modes, Lustrings, Sarfnets, Feathers, Gloves, Ribbons, Gold and Silver-Laces, Tassels, Fringes, &c. &c. &c.—N. B. Carpets, Blankets, Counterpanes, Moreens, and Furniture Cottons, with all the necessary Trimmings.—Only One Price Asked! (2 p) Limerick, March 12, 1796.

ONE THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED Pair of Silk, Silk and Cotton, and Cotton Stockings, this Day arrived to DANIEL THOMAS RYAN, No. 30, Mary-street, Limerick.

RYAN informs his Friends, that he has received the entire of his New Spring and Summer Assortment from London and Dublin, which he is determined to dispose of without the least reserve, considerably under the usual Prices, for Ready Money. London Beaver Hats, for Ladies, Gentlemen, and Children, Dimities and Mullinets remarkably cheap, Callicoes printed & plain, Mullins of every kind, Modes, Laces, and Sarfnets,—Linens, Lawns, and Thick Cambricks,—Yarn and Worsted Flannels,—Black Welbores, Ribbons, Gloves, Velvets, Shawls from 4-4ths to 6-4ths, White 9-8ths Chintzes, &c.

N. B. RYAN's great want of Cash obliges him to sell remarkably Cheap. March 5, 1796.

FREDERICK MINCHIN,
RETURNS thanks to his Friends and the Public, for their kind encouragement to him, and begs leave to inform them, that he has now for Sale all kinds of best Wines in timber and bottle, Bottled Porter and Cider; he will in a few days have a fresh and large assortment of every article in his line, which he will sell upon pleasing terms.—Best Hair Powder. (4 p) March 12, 1796.

NEW GARDEN SEEDS,
And MEDICINES of the First Quality.
SARAH PHILLIPS has arrived per the MARY, a choice and fresh Parcel of GARDEN SEEDS, early Peas and Beans, Canary and Clover Seeds, &c. &c.—also a large assortment of Genuine Medicines, of every kind now in use; she is determined, by strict attention, care, and punctuality, to continue to merit the favour of her Friends and the Public, whose kind preference she has hitherto so amply experienced.

N. B. Patent Medicines and Peppermint Tablets as usual. (3 p) 3d Month 12, 1796.

EDWARD POE, —SADDLER,
No. 10, Patrick-street, Newtown, Limerick,
RESPECTFULLY informs his Friends and the Public, that he has commenced Business, and from several years experience, and close application in Dublin, hopes to give general satisfaction; has now laid in an assortment of the best and most fashionable English and Irish Manufactures, on pleasing Terms, which, from their superior quality, he trusts will meet with universal approbation.—Whips of the best Quality.

N. B. POE is determined to sell at the most reduced Prices, for Ready Money only. (3 p) March 12, 1796.

TO be Sold by AUCTION, on Monday the 21st of March, Instant, precisely at 9 o'Clock, for Account of the Underwriters, at Captain HILL's lower Quay, the Brig DISPATCH, of Dartmouth, with all her Materials.—Inventory of which may be seen at the Mercantile Coffee-House, and on board said Brig. Limerick, March 12, 1796.

N. B. The Materials to be put up in Lots, agreeable to the Purchasers.

DUBLIN, March 8, 1796.
MR. JACKSON, Proprietor of the Theatre-Royal, Edinburgh, respectfully begs leave to acquaint the Public of Limerick, that he has taken the Theatre from Mr. DALY, for the ensuing Assizes, at which time he hopes to be able to produce such Entertainment as he trusts will meet with the Honor of their Approbation.—Particulars in future Advertisements.

THEATRE-ROYAL, —LIMERICK.
First of Mr. and Mrs. JACKSON's Nights.
By Permission of the Worshipful Thomas Gabbett.
ON Monday Evening, March the 14th, 1796, will be presented a Tragedy, (not acted here these six years) called DOUGLAS—Young Norval, Mr. Hargrave,—Old Norval, Mr. Jackson, from the Theatres-Royal London and Edinburgh, his first appearance on this Stage—Anna, Miss Williams, and Lady Randolph, Mrs. Jackson.—To which will be added the Farce of LIKE MASTER LIKE MAN.

EXCHANGE-LANE, 11th of March, 1796
JAMES HALLINAN,
HAS landed this Day out of the Hope, 63 Cr of GLASS, of a fine Quality, fit for Pic or Coach Frames, which he will sell on plea Terms; likewise 100 Crates of Glais, fit for Cr den and House Glazing, which he will sell in Cr Half Crates, and Quarter Do.—He has a few of Sheet Lead, and some Sheet Copper, with Materials in the Plumbing Line.—All those are pleased to favour him with Glazing or Plumbing, will find it their Advantage.—Metal Fashies made by him, at Dublin Prices. (4 p)

TO BE LET, for LIVES, renewable every, or the Interest Sold, the large HO and Concerns in Mary-street, near the Main Gu now tenanted by Pat. Hays, Publican, and several other Tenants—also to be Set the TITHES of Union of NEWPORT, Tip.—For both apply Rev. JOHN PENNEFATHER, Newport, Tip. (3 p) March 12, 1796.

XANTHIPHUS AND RUSHER,
WILL Cover this Season at CRAGBEG, within five miles of Limerick, and three of Adjoining General Maffey's Park—at Two Gu each Mare and Half Crown to the Servant.

XANTHIPHUS, late the property of Lord Car—is fifteen hands and inch high, was got by thiphus, by Omnium out of Ruth—Ruth was by Blank Dam by Regulus and bred by the Duke of Ancafter, his strength, figure, and formance, are well known to the Sportsmen of Country.

The produce of BUMBRUSHER, are now put themselves superior for Bone, Action, and Constitution, to the produce of any Sire of the Day. His Pedigree and astonishing Performance of Turf, are too well known to need insertion. Mare Missing this Year (provided she has regularly attended her Trials) will be served next Year.—Enclosed Paddocks, with good Grass.—Sh Water, and the utmost Care, at Three and 1 pence Halfpenny per Week,—by Michael Nag Cragbeg, March 11, 1796.

M. THOMAS HUNTER,
INTENDING TO RESIDE IN ENGLAND
WILL Dispose of the INTEREST of a HOUSE, in Dominick-Street; it is in p Repair, and fit for the immediate Reception Family; annexed to the House is a Stable for Horses, a Coach and Brew House, and Lodg Servants, with every other necessary Office.—on Monday the 21st Instant, will be Sold by A at said House, all the Household Furniture, China, Cut and other Glais, Beds, Bedding, Limerick, March 9, 1796.

SEEDS, TREES, &c.
HIS third and full Assortment of New G SEEDS, for this Season, are arrived per Mary, and Brothers, Capt. Roberts, from L to WILLIAM FENNESSY, NURSERY and S MAN, Wilton's-Quay, Limerick—also large N and Swedish Feld Turnip, Dwarf Prolific Aleppo Lettuce, large Toker and White-blof Beans, Furze Seed, Split Peas, Hemp, Rap nary, Maw Seed, Red and White Clover, great variety of Flower Seeds and Roots, Trees, &c.—Hopes from the Quality of his and moderate Charges, to merit a Continua those Favours he has already experienced.— of Kidney Beans. Limerick, March 9, 1796.

PRIVATE EDUCATION.
THE Rev. C. WALLER, Son of the la Robert Waller, Bart. wishes to receive his Family, EIGHT YOUNG GENTLE not exceeding the age of Eleven, to EDUCA Castle-Connel, near the Spa, (2 p) March 8, 1796.

MRS. S. ORMSBY, with many thanks Friends and the Public in general, b acquaint them, that she has just returned Dublin, with a great variety of Callicoes, Di Mullins, and every other Article in the