

the 9th of February, parted the next day, and on the 9th ult.
30. they fell in with and were French corvette La Daurade, for Guadaloupe, but being after by a Squadron of British the corvette made the best of her Atholomew; off which island the with and recaptured the Fortune morning last.

s of a gloomy tenor were yester-ceived from Corsica. Nothing red to transpire. It was stated above and below the Bar of the that a revolt had taken place at the Corsicans had by a stratagem on of the arms of the British the revolters had made Sir Gil-soner.

(th) the Court met at 8 o'clock.
Robert Thomas Crossfield was put lictment for compassing the death a poisoned arrow. The evidence was not closed before eleven at was determined to postpone the next day.

it said, that he was on board the -ship with Crossfield, at Brest. heard the prisoner sing an improexclaimed, "Damnation to the d!" He confessed, that he was so attempted to blow a poisoned esty. The witness told him, that n-man would sing such a song; r threatened to have him put in ld declared that Tom Payne's best in the world; and said, that ed in England, he would attempt e King's life again. The witness on board the cartel, and he was shied not to take any notice of l on board the Elizabeth.

delivered a very argumentative and of three hours in defence of the witnesses were next called to the ster, who said they believed him good-natured man.

Justice charged the Jury in the anner, when they withdrew about half, and found the prisoner.—

yesterday received at the Trans-at seven vessels, laden with troops, nd provisions, bound to Gibraltar, rom their convoy near the mouth in consequence of the ships of war o far to leeward of them; and entertained that they have fallen of the enemy. The convoy conte and a sloop of war.

aptured by his Majesty's frigate n sight of the Ganges, of 74 guns, ly their joint prizes, turns out to s value than was at first believed. ie on board, and is now known to ore than 30,000l.

y se'nnight a French lugger pri-d a sloop in Seaford Bay, within battery guns, four of which (24 fired at her with good aim, but for she bore away with her prize, ood luck to escape the guns at ort, as she had done those of that eaford.

t of the Navy arrived at the Ad-yesterday, with dispatches from ean. The affairs of Corsica wear y aspect.

tought in the garrison of Gibrat-Captain Oswald, and a Purser in which the first Gentleman was killed. Colonel Lennox assisted as the quarrel arose at a Ball. he officers who killed a German group of plunderers.

LIMERICK.—MAY 18.

Sunday evening the Right Hon. the Earl of Doneraile, Colonel of the South Cork Militia arrived in town from Dublin, and yesterday morning set out for Clare, to join his regiment.

Sunday night, the wife of John Barry, farmer, at Bridgetown, Co. of Clare, being insane, put an end to her existence, by hanging herself.

The remainder of the London Derry Militia marched into town on Monday last;—they are a fine body of men, and perfectly disciplined.

A letter was received yesterday at the Custom House of this City, that the Commissioners of the Revenue received information that a French Ship of 20 guns, and full of men, lately beat up as high as Tarbert, viewed the Batteries there, and put to sea again with a fair wind.

We can, on the best authority, assure the Public, that the intelligence as above conveyed to the Commissioners, is void of the least foundation.

The Hind, Jamieson, and Helen and Mary, Bannatyne, for this Port, sailed from Gravesend, the 8th inst.

The Integrity, Steele;—Mary, Flight;—Active, Jenkins;—and Peggy, Meade, from this Port, arrived in London, the 11th inst.

On Monday last, by the payment of two Guineas, the Rev. John Hoare released Murdick M'Isaac, who had been confined in the City Gaol for some time, at the suit of William Thynne, and Denis Magrath.—He has some money still in his hands, for liberating more Debtors.

Yesterday Samuel Dickson, Esq; liberated William Fitzpatrick, and John Enright, who were confined in the County Gaol for a debt of 25l. 5s. 6d.—by the payment of 9l. 2s.—also Thomas Hodges, confined in said Gaol, for a debt of 2l. 5s. od. by a payment of 1l. 16s. od. which sums so paid were given to said Dickson by the Foreman of the Grand Jury, as Goole money, at the last Assizes for the County of Limerick.

Yesterday evening a Boy belonging to the brig Swan, lying at the Custom-house-quay, fell out of a boat, and tho' but a few minutes under water unfortunately perished.

This morning the Ceres, Hoyte, sailed for New-York, with passengers.

153 Hhds. Virginia Wrapper Tobacco,

Are just Landed by JAMES ANGLIM,

WHO HAS ALSO FOR SALE,

Some remarkable fine Old Port, in Pipes.

A few Hhds. of excellent Claret.

Sherry and Malaga Wine, in Quarter-Casks.

A large parcel of Malaga Lemons, in choice order.

A few Casks Almonds.

A quantity of Raisins, in Casks and Boxes.

Bright East-India Sugar, in Bags of about 1 cwt.

1 qr. each.—A Cargo of Oak Bark.

A few Puncheons fine Old Jamaica Rum.

A parcel of Kilkenny Coal.

A few Crates Window Glass.

50 Hhds. Fresh London Porter.—And

A few Tons of Liverpool White Salt.

Which he is determined to Sell on as reasonable Terms as such Articles can be got in any part of the Kingdom. Limerick, May 14, 1796.

PRIME PORTER.

ROBERT FERGUSON is landing out of the John, Capt. Bartlett, from London, 400 Hogheads Prime PORTER,

Which he will Sell on pleasing Terms.

N. B. A few Half Hogheads, for the Accommodation of House-Keepers.

Limerick, May 11, 1796.

SELLING AT FIRST COST.

DANIEL THOMAS RYAN,

NO. 30, MARY-STREET,

INFORMS his Friends and the Public, that intending to confine his Trade to the BEAVER is a comfortable Farm House and other Offices on the Lands, the whole of which is choice Meadow Ground, and remarkable for Dairies. The situation is too well known to need a description; the Lands will be shown by Mr. Denis Boland.—Proposals to be received by Mrs. PALMER, Clonmackin, and RICHARD MAUNSELL, Esq; Quinsboro'.— The Tenant will be declared as soon as the Value is offered. Clonmackin, 18th May, 1796.

To the Merchants, Traders, and others of the City of Limerick, claiming their Freedom of said City, by Right of Birth, Servitude, or Marriage,

Gentlemen,

ONE Question of the utmost importance to the Rights and Privileges of the Citizens of Limerick having undergone a solemn discussion in the Court of King's Bench, We are now enabled, pursuant to former Engagement, to call your attention to matters equally important,

You have complained that while Foreigners and Strangers, without pretention, have usurped and trampled on Privileges of this ancient City, your Rights have been withheld, and your Claims rejected with insult; allow us to say, Gentlemen, that you shall no longer complain, without Redress, —your RIGHT shall be established.—When We make this assertion, We speak not in a vain confidence, acquainted as We now are with the real Constitution of your City, and possessed of the means of giving vigour to all its branches.

We remain, Gentlemen,

Your devoted humble Servants,

HENRY DEANE GRADY.

THOMAS CASEY.

Mr. H. DWYER, our Agent, has received the Instructions necessary for establishing the Rights of all Persons claiming as above, they are therefore requested to make their application to him for the said purpose. Limerick, May 18, 1796.

ON Monday, the 23d Instant, will begin to be Sold by Auction, at Colonel Ferrier's House in Dominick-Street, a good part of the Furniture, consisting of two large Mahogany Post Bedsteads, with the Curtain Rods; fashionable Parlour and Drawing-Room Stuffed Chairs; Oval Dining and Breakfast Tables; Card Tables; a Harpsichord made by old Webber; a fashionable Drawing Table; an elegant Writing Desk with a Chest of Drawers under it, and a Book-Case above, with a Nest of Drawers on each side, London made, of the best Mahogany, and cost thirty guineas, with best brass Locks throughout, completely in order and well worth attention; also a large fashionable Tambour Writing Table, made by Davis in Dublin; a half Tall-Boy; Pier and Dressing Glasses; a French Bidet; Carpets; new Stair Rods; fashionable and Chrystal Decanters; Sallad Dish; Tumblers; Glasses; Queen's Ware; Kitchen Jacks and other Utensils; Bottles; with a Variety of other Articles.—The House, which on account of its Vicinity to the Barracks would be eligible for a Field-Officer, with Coach-House and Stable, to be Let, or the Interest Sold—for the particulars of which Application to be made to Lancelot Hill, Esq. RUSSELL, Auctioneer.

Limerick, May 18, 1796.

"To you the Poor is left, and you shall be the Guardian of the Orphan." Psalm 9. Verse 38.
ANNUAL CHARITY SERMON.

ON Sunday the 29th of May Instant, a Charity Sermon will be preached at St. Mary's Chapel, by the Rev. Mr. Goonan, in aid of the Charity School of that Parish, wherein near One Hundred Poor Boys are Clothed, Educated, and Instructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion, and when qualified, Apprenticed, and thereby rendered useful Members of Society.

The evil consequences we daily see proceed from the Ignorance and Idleness of the lower order of the People, clearly evince the necessity and utility of Charity Schools, and more particularly at this time, when new and dangerous Systems are artfully propagated, under specious appearances, to sap the foundation of Religion and Morality.

After the Sermon a Grand Concert of Solemn Music will be performed, by some Gentlemen of this City, who have humanely offered their assistance on this laudable occasion, and an Anthem will be sung by the Poor Children.

Benefactions will be thankfully received by the Worshipful Mayor, Thomas and Robert Maunsell, Esqrs. Henry Dean Grady, Esq; Lancelot Hill, Esq; Thomas Casey, Esq; Henry D'Esterre, Esq; Right Rev. Doctor Conway, Stephen Roche, John Walter Widenham.