 Alexander, Mr. James Molony, Mr. Francis Evans, or Mr. Jeremiah Morris, any of whom will certify the authenticity of this address.

TO THE INHABITANTS OF LIMERICK, Friends and Fellow-Citizens, Although it has pleased Providence to remove my Family to this City, you will suffer me to address you, because if I was ever the humble instrument of deviling any good in Limerick, it was brought into effect by your generous exertions, by your active benevolence.—Future generations will bless the People who founded the Schools in Limerick. In their Committees, I see many humane, sensible Men, who do not live for themselves, who can feel for the whole human race—

By their kind care, the human Plant can rise, Unpropp'd it droops, and unsupported dies.
 It must give you singular satisfaction to be informed, that the CHARITY CHILDREN are proportionably more numerous in Limerick, better visited, and better attended to, than in any place I have seen in England or Ireland. Your Sermon advertised for next Sunday occasions my addressing you. The first in the Kingdom that had a General Meeting of the Poor Children. Let me beseech you to Cherish, to Support, to Increase them, for it is a righteous and merciful cause.
 —Remember whenever we Contribute to the happiness of others, we cultivate Sentiments, which to all Eternity will form a part of our own.
Would you be happy here and blest above, Be rich in deeds of Charity and Love.
 —It is time to banish those accursed prejudices which have divided mankind, and stained the world with so much human blood.

I am your affectionate Fellow-Citizen, Dublin, 20th May, 1796. J. FERRAR.

DONASS BLEACH GREEN.
JOHN MASSY, now Proprietor of said Green, informs his Friends and the Public, that he has carried on the Business last year under the inspection of an experienced Bleacher, and spared no expence in procuring the best Materials, and completing the Works, and hopes he has given general satisfaction. From the great attention paid said Business, he is now able to inform his Friends, that he has this day returned to his Office, Limerick, 200 Pieces, in complete order, and will the same number every week during the season.
