of a very important Charity—the Missions which have been established for the conversion and civilization of the Heathens. Twenty-three thousand of them have been already brought to the knowledge of Christianity, and to all the relative duties of Life; besides many thousands of Catechumens, who are also in a promising way of becoming ornaments of the Christian religion. Upwards of nine thousand of the Negroes in Jamaica, Barbadoes, and the other Islands of the West Indies, have embraced the doctrines and principles of Christianity, and are examples of morality in their lives and conversation, through the labours of the Millionaries, under the Grace and Providence of God.— Missions have also been established at Sierra Leone, on the Coast of Guinea, where 400 of the Blacks have been already converted, and brought to a considerable degree of civilization. The King of the Foulahs, in the Interior of Africa, who is a Mahometan, and whose Capital is about 300 miles from the Coast of Guinea, has, through the medium of the Sierra Leone Company, invited Missionaries for the benefit of his People; and six Missionaries, five of whom are married, and one single, have been accordingly sent to his dominions.

But the expence of these Missions is very great.
 An annual Subscription has for years been established for the Support of this great work; but the Expenditures have far exceeded the annual Subscription. An occasional application, therefore, is now made to the generous and humane in behalf of this important establishment.—Many Gentlemen and Ladies of the City of Limerick, have already contributed largely to this great Charity; and any further Subscriptions will be received at the Bank of Messrs. Maunsell, and Sir Matthew Blakiston, Bart.—or by Mr. Phillip William Russell, Merchant, Limerick, and be sent up to the Treasurer of the Institution in London.

The Directors of St. Mary's Charity School, acknowledge the receipt of the following donations, since their last publication:—Right Hon.
 Lord Mount Norris, per hands of Lant. Hill, Esq; 1l. 2s. 9d.—A Gentleman, per Rev. Mr.
 Goonan, 1l. 2s. d. for which they return sincere thanks.
