To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freehelders of the COUNTY TIPPERARY.

GENTLEMEN.

THE respect I entertained for your late worthy Representative prevented me from commencing any kind of Canval's during his Indisposition, tho' the experiation of a Vacancy was general, and but too well founded; permit me now, Gentlemen, to request your Support on the next General Election, for a Member to fupply his place. The honor of Reprefenting you, fo often conferred on my Anceftors, I have ever been accustomed to hold in the highest estimation, yet should not aspire to it, were I not determined to promote to the utmost of my power, on all occasions, the Public good, and most particularly the interest of a County where I have received fuch fignal inftances of Zeal and Attach-I have the honour to remain, GENTLEMEN, With the greatest Respect and Gratitude, Thomastown, Your devoted Humble Servant, July 2, 1796. FRANCIS MATHEW.

To Lieut. Col. Cope, and the Officers of the Armagh Militia, who were quartered at Doneraile.

DERMIT us, the Gentlemen of the Town and Neighbourhood, to return you our unanimous and fincere Thanks, for your very proper Conduct and polite Behaviour, during the time you were amongst us, and to affure you how much we feel the lofs of fuch Society. To the Non-commissioned Officers and Privates, we beg you will have the goodness to communicate our warmest Approbation and Thanks, for their general good Conduct during the fix Months they were quartered here. To Lord Viscount Doneraile, and the Gentlemen of the Town and Vicinity of Doneraile.

E beg leave to return you our most fincere Thanks, for your polite and friendly Address. If the Conduct of our Non-commissioned Officers and Privates, whilst quar and amongst you, was becoming that of Soldiers, it must be in a great measure attributed to the Loyal and Peaceable Behaviour of the Inhabitants of Doneraile, and its Neighbourhood.

We cannot fufficiently express our Regret at leaving your Society; the hospitable Reception we always experienced from you, particularly at a time when Int nuations to our difadvantage were too industriously circulated, meets our warmest Acknowledgements, and should the Routine of Duty cause our Return to your Quarters, we shall esteem it a most fortunate Circumstance.
