On Saturday John Paviour, (one of those perfons called Bullock Hunters,) was tried at the Old Bailey, for driving a bullock out of Smithfield-Market early on the morning of the 23d of May last, and was found guilty-Death. It is hoped therefore that this profecution will greatly check, if not wholly put an end to that pernicious practice, by which not only the property, but the lives of the public are fo much endangered, in and about this metropolis,

DUBLIN,-JULY 7.

In all former wars on the continent, where Great Britain and France werrelikewise at hostilities, intelligence of any express that arrived in Austrian Maritime Flanders, could find its way from Oftend to Dover, if the wind was in any favourable direction, in about five hours and a half and less, the distance not being so great as between Dublin and Holyhead, or elfe from some of the ports of Holland, though not indeed in fo short a time, -At present, let the situation of affairs be ever so critical or important, the public impatience can only be gratified by a very circuitous way, and much more frequently the news first arrives by the channel of the French papers, of which we have had several recent in-

A gentleman who arrived from London on Monday affures us, that the only matter which etards a negociation for peace between our Miister and the French Directory is the want of ntelligence from the West Indies respecting the perations of the forces fent there under the ommand of General Abercrombie; fo that as on as it is known to a certainty what has or in be done previous to the hurricane feafon, we ay confidently look for the termination of the stresses which the present war has induced,
