LIMERICK,—JULY 20.

The Assizes for this City, which finished yesterday, has proved maiden—the business of the County will be concluded this night,—in the same pleasing manner.

The Resolutions entered into by the respectable characters whose signatures appear to an Advertisement in this day's paper, does honor to them as Magistrates and Men of Property; nor does it reflect less honor on the Grand Jury of the Co. of Limerick, who, having it in their power to add 500l. to the taxes of the Yeomanry, shewed an example worthy the imitation of every Grand Jury in Ireland.

This day John Green, Esq; Foreman of three Record Juries at the Assizes for the Co. Limerick, paid to the Treasurer of the House of Industry 2l. 17s. 11½d. for the use of said Charity.

DIED. A few days ago, deservedly lamented, the Rev. Morgan O'Brien, Parish Priest of Newcastle, in the County of Limerick.
