On Wednesday morning a duel was fought at Kinsale by two Militia Officers, in which one, it seems, was mortally wounded.

LIMERICK,—AUGUST 3.

The Races which will commence on the 18th inst. at Newcastle, near this City, it is believed, will be better attended than any former meeting, several capital Racers are already entered with Mr. T. Hayes, clerk of said Course, and notice given of many more on their way from Down-Patrick, &c.

Monday, Tuesday, and this morning, the Prince of Wales's Regiment of Fencibles marched hence for the Cantonments mentioned in a former paper;—there never were soldiers quartered in this City who conducted themselves with greater regularity, or more amenable to the Civil Power.

This day a woman was apprehended and committed to Gaol, for having in her possession above seven Guineas in base silver Coin.

Wholesale Woollen, Manchester and Muslin WARE-HOUSE,

No. 52, WILLIAM-STREET, DUBLIN.

PHILIP BAYLY, informs his Friends and the Public, that he has returned from all the principal Manufacturing Towns in England, where he has purchased the greatest Variety of Superfine, Refine, and Forest CLOTHS, ever offered to sale, and which he has paid ready Money for; therefore, it gives him the power of selling them from 10 to 15 per Cent. lower than any other House in Dublin can, an advantage never before experienced by the Retailers in this Kingdom.—Said Ware-house will always be regularly supplied with cheaper Cloths than can be purchased elsewhere, he having entered into Partnership with some of the Principal Manufacturers in the Woollen Line, in the different Towns in England.

CORDUROYS, THICKSETS, MARCEILLES QUILTING, LINING FUSTIANS, &c.—A single Piece will be sold, and Bills at three Months taken as Cash.

N. B. A great Variety of Plain and Fancy India and British Muslins, Printed Calicoes, Gingham, Shawls, &c. to be always had at said Ware-house.
