have guaranteed all the Dutch that people, consequently a peace entered into with Great Britain, the Directory insist upon the restoration in the East and West Indies.

We hope, however, that such will not impede the consummation of the event. Sacrifices must not be made to obtain that blessing, which is general with.

Bill, published in the first page, was withdrawn by the Right Hon. man who moved it; and the following explicit Bill, which has been its place, passed the Commons, and passed through the House of Peers.

acted by the King's most excellent Majesty with the advice and consent of the Great and Temporal and Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that if any of his Majesty's Subjects in this kingdom shall have voluntarily associated and enrolled themselves, or voluntarily associate and enroll themselves, or companies during the present war, under officers appointed from his Majesty, or from any other person authorized thereto by his Majesty, for the defence of property and preservation of the peace in any barony city or town where the first assembling shall be appointed, and within every barony, immediately adjoining thereto, every soldier, drummer, and private there enrolled to receive such clothing, arms, or allowance in lieu thereof, in any such manner and at such place as shall be appointed by his Majesty or the Chief Governor or any other person authorized thereto by his Majesty, shall be liable to be tried by any court martial, unless such court martial be composed entirely of officers serving in corps formed as aforesaid, such court martial to be assembled by warrant from the Chief Governor or Governors of this kingdom, or by warrant from some general or other officer duly authorized to order courts martial to be holden.

And be it enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that all commissioned officers of such troops or companies who shall be disabled in actual service shall be entitled to half pay, and all non-commissioned officers, privates, trumpeters and drummers to the benefit of the Royal Hospital at Kilmainham, and the widows of commissioned officers killed in the service to such pension for life as is usually given to the widows of officers of like rank in his Majesty's regular forces.

And be it enacted, that no person who shall be enrolled in any such troop or company as aforesaid, shall during the time he is serving in such corps be liable to serve personally or to provide a substitute to serve in the Militia, provided he shall produce to the Deputy Governor assembled at a sub-division meeting, an affidavit of his having been enrolled as aforesaid, and a certificate signed by his commanding officer that he has for the space of six weeks immediately preceding such divisional meeting punctually attended at all such times and places as may have been appointed for the exercise thereof, unless prevented therefrom by sickness, which sickness shall be stated in such certificate and verified by oath.

An be it further enacted, that every person who shall have entered into any such troop or company before the passing of this act shall within ten days after the passing thereof or at such other near and convenient time as shall be appointed by his commanding officer, and every other person who shall hereafter enroll himself in any such troop or company, shall at the time he shall enroll himself take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation of allegiance:

"I, _____, do sincerely promise and swear, that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to his Majesty King George the Third, and that I will faithfully support and maintain the laws and constitution of this kingdom, and the succession to the throne in his Majesty's illustrious house. So help me God."

Every which oath any magistrate is hereby empowered to administer, and the commanding officer shall transmit the same to his Majesty's War-Office without delay, to be enrolled from thence in his Majesty's Court of Chancery.

That if any officer shall admit or retain in his troop, &c. any person who shall neglect to take and subscribe the same, or who upon being required thereto by him shall refuse to take and subscribe it, he shall, on due conviction thereof, in any court of record be fined for every such offence in the sum of 500l. one half thereof to be paid to the informer, and the other half to company shall, in case of invasion, rebellion or insurrection, or the apprehension thereof, voluntarily offer to act as a military corps, and to do duty as such, or to march wherever it shall be ordered within this kingdom during the continuance of such invasion, rebellion or insurrection, or the apprehension thereof, every person therein who shall testify such his offer by putting his name thereto, shall upon such offer being accepted by his Majesty, or the Chief Governor or Governors of this kingdom, be entitled, if a Commissioned Officer, to receive the same pay as Officers of like rank receive in his Majesty's regular forces; and if a Serjeant, Trumpeter, Drummer, or Private, the same pay daily as on the days of exercise, and each be subject while he shall be so entitled, and at no other time, nor on any other ground or pretence, to the like military discipline as his Majesty's Regular or Military Forces, during the time he shall have so offered for, and no longer.

Provided always, that no officer or soldier of any such corps shall be liable to be tried by any court martial, unless such court martial be composed entirely of officers serving in corps formed as aforesaid, such court martial to be assembled by warrant from the Chief Governor or Governors of this kingdom, or by warrant from some general or other officer duly authorized to order courts martial to be holden.

And be it enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that all commissioned officers of such troops or companies who shall be disabled in actual service shall be entitled to half pay, and all non-commissioned officers, privates, trumpeters and drummers to the benefit of the Royal Hospital at Kilmainham, and the widows of commissioned officers killed in the service to such pension for life as is usually given to the widows of officers of like rank in his Majesty's regular forces.
