Limerick, Dec. 14, 1796.

At a Meeting of the First Limerick Cavalry, held on Sunday 22d Inst.—CHARLES JOHNSTON, Esq; in the Chair,—the following Resolutions were most unanimously adopted;—

RESOLVED, That the Thanks of this Corps be presented to JOHN VILLIERS, Esq; our Captain, for his uniform and spirited exertions from its commencement, in drawing forth so effectually the Strength of this City for its protection, and that of the Kingdom in general, by a selection of Men of Independence and fair Character, without regard to Party Prejudice, or Religious Distinction.

Resolved, therefore, That we take this opportunity of declaring publicly, that he shall always find us Ready to obey his Orders with pleasure and alacrity, deeming it the best manner of testifying our respect for him, and Attachment to our King and Constitution.

Resolved, That the above Resolutions be inserted in the Limerick Newspapers, and in the Dublin Journal.—Limerick, Jan. 25, 1797.
