To the Printer of the Limerick Chronicle.

SIR,

Your inserting the inclosed, will oblige

Your very humble Servant,

EVERY BODY.

Mr. Somebody presents his compliments to the House-keepers of Newtown-Pery, informs them he understands Mr. Nobody, (contrary to the general idea formed of his character,) is determined to do good to the Public, by causing all Coal Holes not properly stopped (so as to prevent Mr. Anybody falling into them by night,) to be instantly made safe, by the removal of the stone from the parapet-wall immediately opposite, and to be placed over them, till a better is procured; this notice Mr. Somebody hopes will have the desired effect, and not cause his Friend Mr. Nobody such trouble.
