Died—Laſt night, at Friars Walk, Miss Ahern, moſt ſincerely regretted.

Ennis, March 13. Friday laſt Mr. Dowling, aſſiſted by a party of the South Cork Militia, ſeized on the lands of Ballingrane, near Crofton, two ſtills, two worms, and two [illegible], in a private diſtillery there, and at the ſame time ſpilled upwards of 200 gallons of potale, and burſt and deſtroyed the different utenſils annexed thereto.—The unremitted exertions of this officer has thrown ſuch a damp on this illicit buſineſs, that we hope ſhortly to ſee it totally ſuppreſſed in this neighbourhood.

Tueſday laſt, Charles Mahon, Eſq. Chairman of the Seſſions in this County, held his firſt Court in Milltown.—On this occaſion he was met by the Milltown Cavalry, under the command of Capt. Morony, who eſcorted him, and attended to preſerve the peace till the buſineſs of the Court was finally cloſed.

LIMERICK,—MARCH 18.

Monday evening, Mr. M'Donnell of Mary-ſtreet, riding on the foot path-way on the Nooth-ſtrand, his horſe [illegible] two ſtraw ropes (from ſide being in) and ſwimming across ſafely, lodged the rider near the Biſhop's Garden.

Yeſterday evening Earl Carhampton, Commander in Chief, arrived at the houſe of Colonel J. Prendergaſt Smyth, in this City.

Laſt night, William Kennedy, charged with the murder of William Franklin, was brought in and lodged in the Co. Jail, under a tranſmit warrant from the High Sheriff of the Co. Tipperary;—he was eſcorted by a party of the Tipperary Yeomanry, under the command of Capt. Baker.

BIRTH. On Sunday laſt, at Newtown-Pery, the Lady of Nicholas Mahon, Eſq; of a Son.

DIED. Laſt Sunday, in Mary-ſtreet, much regretted, Mrs. Elizabeth Denmead, relict of the late Mr. William Denmead.—Same night, in ſaid ſtreet, Mr. John Alley, an eminent Tallow Chandler, a Member of Captain Villiers Corps of Yeomen Cavalry;—he was a young Man of the moſt unblemiſhed reputation, and deſervedly lamented by his friends and acquaintance
