Friday last arrived His Majesty's ship Kangaroo, Hon. Capt. Boyle, from Plymouth, having under convoy the Albion transport, laden with Ordnance Stores for the Battery at Tarbert.

On Sunday last, sailed His Majesty's ships Cerberus, of 38 guns, Captain Drew, and Amphitrite, of 32 guns, Hon. Captain Herbert, having under convoy fifteen sail of Government Provision Ships, for the Downs.

The above convoy is the most valuable and important one that has sailed from this port since the commencement of the war, having almost the whole of the Provisions made up here this year, therefore their safe arrival is of the utmost consequence to the British Navy.
