tions on the conduct of the Brit, which after leading Ireland by which her commerce was alth exhausted, and even her con-, deserted her in the moment of led to assist her in a paltry loan. acknowledged that the Hon. Gen-disorderly in animadverting on the British Minister so far as reaffairs of this country—but he to his recollection, that his Right ad not stated that the British Miosed the completion of the Irish e Governor and Deputy Gover-of England who had thrown dis-way—on the contrary, he could that the British Minister had been y disposed. He vindicated Sir aving completed the loan earlier, laudable motive of trying every re money in that way by which o obtained supplies for the public d of resorting to that mode to had now driven him. That mode, was now the best which circum-permit, and there was reason to recent establishment of a fund own the national debt, that it so destructive in this country as it l in Great Britain.
l said that it was the business of find the best means of raising mo-waste time in crimination. When n. Baronet first proposed the open proved of his plan; and suggested of granting a debenture of 100l. erest of six per cent. for every 97l. had since conversed with monied subject, and thought if his sugeen attended to, the Right Hon. been more successful. In the preould advise the giving (instead of a transferable Bank Note of 100l. at nterest for every 97l. subscribed. cellor of the Exchequer moved, te of interest in the Open Loan of raised to 6 per cent. and that the 2,000l. already subscribed be enncrease of interest." The motion , and the House having resumed s ordered for to-morrow.

here, were sent down the river to the Tender.

Cork, April 10. Last Saturday James Giles, of Dunmanway, a Deputy Collector of the Public Money, for the West Division of East Carbery, eloped with a considerable sum.

This day the Lords Justices of Assize arrived in town, and opened their Commissions in both Courts.

LIMERICK,—APRIL 15.

A letter has been received by the several Captains of the Volunteer Corps in this Kingdom, from the Right Hon. Mr. Secretary Pelham, signifying his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's desire, that they prepare their Corps for an inspection of arms and accoutrements, as well as men, by a general Officer.

From the supineness of the present Market Jury, we feel it our duty, to call on them individually, to recollect the solemn Oath they took on being appointed to that office—there is no large Town where the institution of a Market Jury has not proved beneficial, and if they would do their duty in this City, very little fraud could go unpunished in the articles of Provisions.

Yesterday evening, three Deserters were brought in from Nenagh, by a Serjeant and six Privates of the Nenagh Yeomen Infantry, and lodged in the Main-Guard of this City.

Died. Last Thursday, in Sheep-street, much regretted, Mr. Richard Watson, Architect.—Yesterday in Palmer's-town, Mrs. Clendinnen, relict of Mr. Robert Clendinnen, deservedly lamented.

PORT-NEWS, April 9. Sailed the Fanny, Galbreath, Greenock, oats, pork and butter.—11. Sailed the Gamlemorge, Gordine Juel, St. Ubes, ballast.—The Spinova, Oldson, Drum, ballast.—12. Arrived the Jane, Mitchell, Greenock, linseed & herrings.—The Anne, M'Wain, Irvine, coal.—The Venus, Campble, Greenock, herrings.—The Shannon, Thompson, Workington, coal.—The Anne, Thompson, [redacted] slates.—13. Arrived the Aird, Brown, Greenock, tobacco, and herrings.—The St. George, Power, Oporto, (last from Westport,) wine.—16. Sailed the Peggy, Carrig, Greenock, oats.—The Betty, Galbreath, Greenock, oats.—The Hero, Denny, Dumbarton, oats.—Arrived the Ceres, Jacob, Chepstow, bark.