

On Thursday last all the City Corps of Yeomanry, with the three Corps of Cavalry (before mentioned) from the County Limerick, attended, to be inspected by General Sir James Duff, Bt. agreeable to notice, — from the incessant Rain that fell, the General politely dispensed with their marching to the intended Ground, until a future day; — he however inspected, at Newtown Pery, the most distant Corps, the Croagh Cavalry, commanded by Captain Croker, whose appearance in every respect was highly pleasing to the General, and does infinite credit to the Commander, and Gentlemen who compose the Corps.

About the hour of two o'clock this morning, some nefarious villains broke and entirely destroyed the cast-metal railing of the Rev. Archdeacon Mansell's house in Newtown-Pery; — the Picquet apprehended three persons, whom if convicted of the fact, we sincerely hope may be made public examples.

Silver Oliver, Esq; jun. is appointed Captain in the Killinab Yeomen Infantry, vice Coote, resign'd.

BIRTH. Thursday last, at his seat at Fishmoyn, Co. Tipperary, the Lady of Theobald Butler, Esq; of a Son and Heir.

MARRIAGE. This morning, Mr. Joseph Worrell, of Charlotte's-Quay, shoe-maker, to the agreeable Miss Goggin, daughter to Mr. Stephen Goggin, Revenue-Officer.

DEATH. Last month, at Newton, near Bath, Mrs. Brabazon Harrington, relict of William Harrington, Esq; and mother of Richard Taylor, of Hollypark, Esq; — she was a woman of the greatest benevolence and charity, of the most cheerful and polished manners, and of a most exalted piety.

TO BE LET, the Commodious HOUSE and STORES, lately tenanted by George Russell, on the Lock Quay; application to W^M. WALLACE, Charlotte's-Quay; — who has just arrived to him a large parcel of Genuine CASTOR OIL. (2 p) Limerick, May 6, 1797.
