Monday last a General Court Martial assembled at the Council Chamber of this City, to try 27 Privates of the Louth Militia for Mutiny, and taking and tendering the Oath of Defenders of United Irishmen; 4 only were on that day put on their trials, viz. John Ward, Arthur McCormick, John O'Neil, and Bernard Luny, the first of whom immediately pleaded guilty, the 3 others not guilty; the following are the Militia Officers composing the Court Martial:—Col. Browne, South Mayo Militia, President; Colonel the Right
 Hon. Lord Doneraile, South Cork; Major Smith, Londonderry; Major St. Leger, South Cork;
 Capt. Nesbit, Londonderry; Capt. Heenan, South
 Cork; Capt. A. Richardson, Royal Tyrone; Captain Henderson, Londonderry; Captain D.
 Browne, South Mayo; Capt. Church, Londonderry; Captain J. Richardson, Royal Tyrone; Capt. Burroughs, Londonderry; Capt. Strettle, South Cork; Capt. Miller, Londonderry; Capt.
 J. Brown, South Mayo.—Deputy Advocate General Major Ellis.

Monday morning, at the hour of two o'clock, a fire was discovered in the attic story of a house in Dominick-street, which burned with great fury for some time, but was happily got under by the exertions of the Military in the neighbourhood, without any material damage.

BIRTH. Last Sunday, on Harvey's-Row, the Lady of Wm. Johnson Harte, Esq; of a daughter.

DIED. Last Saturday, at Ennis, in the 85th year of his age, Mr. Percival Banks, Apothecary, a Gentleman highly respected by an extensive acquaintance.—This morning, in Nicholas-street, much lamented, Mrs. Connery, wife to Mr.
 William Connery.
