

ford and Wexford Militia, quartered in Cork, apprehended and lodged in the gaol of said City, thirteen Persons, charged with taking and administering the Defender's Oath, among whom was a noted Delegate from Dublin, who had been pilloried for a similar offence about six months ago.

In pursuance of a route received on Sunday last, the Angus-shire regiment of Fencibles, commanded by Colonel Douglas, marched hence on Monday, Tuesday, and this morning, for Cavan, Monaghan, Clones, and Virginia.

The conduct of the above Regiment, Officers and Privates, during their stay in this City, has been such as to gain them the esteem of all ranks of Citizens.—On their being so suddenly ordered hence, the Officers wrote to the Rev. Mr. Lewis, their Chaplain, that having laid in for the Mess a greater quantity of Provisions than they had occasion for, requested he might take the trouble of having them distributed to the Poor in the House of Industry, which was accordingly done yesterday evening.
