

It is not difficult, will be the issue of party appear to have and co-operate too owing the Govern-; but on the other the more moderate long this party, may n to propositions of hitherto been averse, e necessary to their of which they have the general persua-ople, that they are es, Lord Malmesbury the Negotiation for favourable to the at- cannot be the wish in England or France, the latter Country; as we are persuaded mpt to alter the Go- arise from the reluc- ch the horrors of the inspired almost every y approbation which pries for the measures ve been told that M. nich he wrote to Lord at Peace was absolute- ions." This was said e mutiny at the Nore. e then, and we believe persuaded that it is at ce as for this Country, sbury will treat upon will spurn with indig- condition, should the or presumption, insult by degrading propo-

[Lon. Chron.]
 N.—July 6. s.—Dublin Gazette.
 rds, Mr. John Vereker win, promoted.—Mr. ner, vice Steele, pro- d the 1st of June.
 iament is a measure, resolved on, and is themselves Delegates. was a regular correspondence kept up between those assassins at the Camp of Bandon, and others of the same description at the Camps of Ardhanan and Fermoy;—as yet our men appear what we wish them to be.—Some of the inhabitants of Bandon, who were in league with the mutinous soldiers, have also been taken up."

Yesterday the County and City Debtors received a tide of Munro, and twelve stone of Potatoes, from the Rev. John House.

DEAD. Last Sunday, at Crobie-Row, after a short illness, Miss Anne Studlett, a young Lady whose affability and real goodness of heart, render her death an irreparable loss, not only to her own disconsolate family, but to all those who had the happiness of being acquainted with her.—Monday, at Killarney, the Rev. Dr. Teaghan, Titular Bishop of Kerry, a Gentleman most deservedly lamented by his acquaintance.

To the Printer of the Limerick Chronicle,
 SIR,

As the annexed short Essay may serve the cause of One Hundred poor Orphans, (for whose support a Charity Sermon will be preached in St. Mary's Chapel to-morrow,) I trust you will insert it, so oblig-

Dependant Man! Wilt thou not share a little with thy necessitous Fellow-Creature? However thou hast acquired wealth, whether by abilities, by industry, by inheritance, or by casualty, thou art bound to be charitable.—If by abilities, remember from whom thou hast received them, and how soon you may be deprived of them, if insensible and uncharitable.—If by industry, think how many have laboured to no purpose.—If by inheritance, lose no time in applying them properly, lest to-morrow, and you may be no more!—If by casualty, shew yourself worthy of what God has tried you with. One wave throws in, another may hurry out. Give them something however you are situated, as "Even a cup of cold water shall not be unrewarded." Will you then make a choice in the disposal of your Donation? Prevent Vice! It is better to keep off than to conquer an Enemy. Clothe and train up Children in the practice of Virtue. Supply them with useful information. Make them Servants of God, and of course honest Men, faithful Friends, good Subjects, and Protectors of your Country.

ARRIVED from Workington

whoever gives intelligence will be handsomely rewarded. For more news will be paid on vision, by Captain Cornwall Pasche

Limerick Society, the WILLIAM W

RESOLVED, That the Holders of the purchase of said Refused, That we this Society at large, 21 Widows, our Cap There are two V Married Men will WM. WALLACE, Esq; Treasurer; or

CAUTION the P Russell, the more than a Ten in which he is ab when I had to DAVID Limerick, July 8, r

TO be Set, for the Plot of Gr late in the Tenure of the Little Island.— Rev. Mr. INGRA (3 P)

TO be LET, to long Term of the KING's ISLAND Proposed in writ PRENDERGAST thereof to be let No. 40, Kildare

TO be Set, and HOUSE in WHITE Esq; is