

the 9th instant, mention of 3 ships of 110 guns, guns, besides frigates, ships, and were to sail on of the 21st ult, inform s had ordered the Laws to be rigorously exe-

Brussels Papers to the appears that the French and Friedberg.

a Gentleman at Lille.

"Lille, July 14.

yesterday morning; and I assure you that, whatever is done in your city, in order to check, we shall soon have

This, at least, is the man who performs a very important business. This of every man of under-power on earth can now do this grand work, since we fight for peace, and on proves, that Pitt, for the acts with sincerity. Some persuade the public, that the obstacles in the way of is not universally known, on the one side, and their on the other, have openly declared on this subject? To op-the whole nation who have se-the force of arms, were to ex-the blame and responsibiand even to incur the guilt the negotiations were to the Councils would call upon to intimate them with their mothe Government, as they did of Lord Malmesbury, the object and propositions pub-that they themselves acted

There have been the most awful and tremenduous Lightning in several parts of England; the last week, that has been remember'd; thanks to the Almighty, we enjoy the most delightful weather which the Farmer could desire!

Sir Laurence Parsons, Bart. and D. B. Daly, Esq; were on Monday last, unanimously elected Knights of the Shire for the King's County.

John Sutton, (who lost a leg in his Majesty's service) returns his most humble and grateful thanks to Major Vallancy, of the Tyrone Regt. who yesterday most generously paid 40s. for him when he was going to be committed to gaol, on an action for debt.

Seized, on the 19th inst. near Clogheen, by Messrs. Forster, Stanistreet, and Armstrong, Excise Officers in Clonmel, assisted by a party of the 5th dragoons, a large still, head & worm; also, destroyed a great quantity of singlings, pot-ale, and malt in process of manufacture.

DIED. Last Friday evening, in Banis, Mrs.
Williams, relict of the late Mr. Mat. Williams, of that town.

POST-NEWS, July 24. Sailed the Peggy, Leviston, Greenock, oats.—25. The Enterprize, Grogan, Lisbon, butter.

LIMERICK ELECTION.

 THE FRIENDS of Colonel VEREKER, and Mr. GRADY, having United their Interests in Support of those Gentlemen, the early Attendance of the Freemen and Freeholders, who intend to Honour them with their Suffrages, is earnestly requested at the Tholsel, at Limerick, on Monday the 31st July Inst. the Day fixed on for the Poll.

Limerick, 24th July, 1797.

 Mr. WALLER earnestly requests the attendance of his Friends, on Monday next.

25th July, 1797.

To
Fr
T

IN I
you
the kind and my
P nerous
Impul
many teader
the
of the

I
a Nat
respe as a rate
the

Mome
clared an make Adence
ther these were for who cannot

to
to
Coun
willy defen
cloth andve pursu this ject

Select
more
who

at defert
Value
the
p