TO THE PUBLIC.

RICHARD PEPPARD informs his Friends and the Public, that he will diſcontinue the Publication of the LIMERICK HERALD from THIS DAY, in order to enable him more cloſely to attend the

Printing and Stationary Buſineſs, in the moſt extenſive manner; which, from his knowledge of the London and Dublin arrangements, he is emboldened to hope will give general ſatisfaction—conducted (as they ſhall be) with the ſtricteſt Integrity, Aſſiduity and Diſpatch.

For the edification and amuſement of the Ladies in particular, PEPPARD will enlarge his

and have continually a well-choſen and judicious Aſſortment of Polite and Faſhionable Literature, which his conſtant attention to the Publication of the LIMERICK HERALD, rendered hitherto impracticable.
