one Day's pay, and Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Bombardiers, and Privates, for the of the Widows, Orphans, and wounded of Lord Duncan's Fleet: it amounts to 301.—This Regiment would have been the first to subscribe, but from their scattered situation.

The detachment of Artillery quartered here, under Captain Tonkins, is to march about Friday for Cove Harbour, and to be relieved by a like number under Lieut. Walsh, now on their march from Dublin.

In consequence of the heavy fall of snow on Wednesday and Thursday, the Mail Coach which should have arrived on Thursday night at 10 o'clock, did not come in our Post-office until five o'clock yesterday evening.—The Coach, which conveyed the Mail for Dublin yesterday, could proceed no farther than Kilmahalla, and returned;—a snow having taken place, the Post last night arrived very late later than the usual time.

The snow was so deep in the roads that some of our Carriers could not pass, without the Limerick Chronicle is the adjacent Town.

By the late Statute Act, a duty of one Guinea is charged on Marriage Licenses; but this was intended for Prolegatory Licenses only, and a mistake was afterwards rectified by the Statute Bill, chap. 30, sec. 278, which enacts, that no higher duty than 2s. 6d. shall be paid for a Marriage License issuing out of a Consistorial Court.

Yesterday was married, Michael Dea, butler to the Rev. Dr. Maunfell, aged 18 years, to the agreeable Widow Cusack, aged 30 years.

MARRIED. On Tuesday last, Mr. Jeremiah O'Brien, of Rein-Isch, Co. Tipperary, to Miss Margaret Molony, daughter to Mr. Thomas Molony, of O'Brien's-Bridge, County Clare.

DIED. On Thursday morning, at his seat at New-Ross, Co. Tipperary, in the 80th year of his age, Henry White, Esq; a Gentleman highly respected in public and private life for his integrity of principle, amiable manners, and excellence of character, as an affectionate husband, kind father, and most sincere friend; his death is therefore universally regretted by a numerous and respectable family, and an extensive acquaintance.
