The Rev. John Hoare acknowledges the receipt of 1l. 2s. 9d. from a Lady on Armore's Quay; 1l. 2s. 6d. from a Clergyman; 1l. 2s. 6d. from the Widow Villiers; 1l. 8s. 3d. from a Lady in the Country, by the Rev. Deane Hoare, and 1l. 2s. 9d. from a Lady by Rev. William Hoare, for the purpose of releasing poor confined Debtors.—On the 8th inst. he released Oliver Dalton, by paying 1l. 11s. 6d. the Mayor having paid a similar sum; and on the same day, he released John Burke, who had been confined 16 Months, by the payment of 5l. 14s. 1 1/2d.
Balance in hands 1l. 10s. 1 1/2d.—In releasing Debtors, preference is given to such as have good characters, and such as have a family to support.

On Tuesday last, Mr. W. O'Donnell sent 44 Beef's Bellies to the House of Industry.

DIED. Yesterday, at Reens, Co. of Limerick, in the 91st year of his age, Stephen Creaghe, Esq; a Gentleman of patriarchal virtues, long, very long will his memory exist, and be dear to his numerous Family and acquaintance; for he was the steady Friend, the good Father, and above all the good and sincere Christian.
