

but at all events sufficient to the day was the evil thereof.—In this sentiment the Sheriffs concurred, and said that they were ready at all times, and whenever they should be required, to call their fellow-citizens together. The idea was then dropped. The Resolutions were then put from the Chair, and passed unanimously.

LIMERICK,—FEBRUARY 6.

The Mail which was forwarded from our Post Office for Cork on Friday last, & robbed near Doneraile.

Last Friday night, a very numerous party assembled at a Ball given by Mr. Adolphus of the Romney Cavalry;—if variety and profusion in the appearance, taste in the disposition, and selection in the choice of all that the season could afford, added to the unaffected politeness, and indiscriminate attention of the Gentlemen who presided, were calculated to please; we may venture to assert, that one of the most brilliant assemblages that ever graced a similar entertainment in this City, had every reason to be perfectly gratified.

Yesterday, Colonel Prendergast Smyth, arrived in town from his seat at Gort.

MARRIED. Yesterday Mr. Roger Hayes, of Thomond-Gate, an eminent Baker, to the agreeable Miss Downs, of said place.

DIED. Last Sunday in William-street, Mrs. Powell, wife of Robert Powell, Esq; her death is an afflicting loss to her husband and children; by whom and her family she is deservedly lamented.—This morning, in Mary-street, Mrs. Dwyer, wife of Mr. Michael Dwyer, master of the King's-Head Tavern.—Sunday last, at Newcastle, County of Limerick, Francis Smith, Esq.

To Colonel CHARLES VEREKER, of the City Limerick Militia, the Defender and Friend of Independent IRELAND.

When fell Rebellion rais'd its poison'd crest,
And pierc'd the Widow's and the orphan's breast.
When the proud foe were led a weary dance,
To seek a dinner seldom found in France.
Vereker! thou,—the hero's lot was thine,
To make the Limerick Corps in hist'ry shine.
Thy ardent soul delay'd not for command,
Sligo was sav'd by thy courageous hand!
The peaceful muse turns from such scenes of blood,

To where the Patriot votes his country's good.
Where Ireland's sons, determin'd to be free, Sacrifice all for heaven-born liberty!
Ye deathless names!—Subjects of endless praise,
By virtue crown'd with never-fading bays.
While parricides dragg'd forth by truth's decree, Behold, and hate their own deformity.
Immortal Foster sav'd the sinking mace,
And honest Parnel scorn'd a sullied place.
Long may we boast such men, our rights to save,
A Patriot Senate, proud, and bold, and brave.
To eminence may Ireland ever soar,
The sacred founts of social bliss explore.
In commerce, arts, and arms let her excel,
Peace, union, industry, still with her dwell.
Pour out the wealth of nations with each tide,
Triumphant Britain strength'ning at her side.
The envy of surrounding nations stand,
Law in her voice, and fortune in her hand.

(3P) Limerick, 6th of 2d Month, 1799.

Mr. TUTHILL will Set for Lives or Years, from 25th March next, his House, Office, and Demesne of Green-Hills, containing ment, who on the 24th of this Month, by Measure tending to alter that Connexion, to subvert the Independence and Constitution of this Kingdom, have deserved the Thanks of this Country.

And feeling the most animated Confidence in their future exertions, We pledge ourselves to continue in suppressing Disorder, and enforcing a due obedience to the Laws; convinced that every Measure necessary for the Peace and Prosperity of Ireland, must result from their Patriotism and Wisdom.

Resolved, That the following Address be presented to JOHN WALLER, Esq; one of our Representatives in Parliament;—

SIR,
WE have twice elected you our Representative in Parliament, fully persuaded from our Knowledge of your Principles that we could not deposit the important Trust in PURER Hands. Your conduct on every occasion has amply evinced the propriety of our Choice.—Assembled this Day in our collective Capacity, We return you our cordial and sincere Thanks, for the honourable and ardent Zeal with which you supported in Parliament, the Independence and Constitution of your Country, on the 22d and 24th of this Month. The event of these Memorable Debates has imparted to us this proud Truth, that the Publick Spirit of this Country is not to be undermined by Corruption, or intimidated by Force. If the Applauses of your Countrymen can add to the happiness of a Virtuous Mind, you have obtained your Reward.

Lord MASSY being called to the Chair, Resolved, That the Thanks of the Meeting be given to the High Sheriff for his proper Conduct in the Chair.

GENTLEMEN,
IT gives me great pleasure to find that my Conduct in Parliament upon every occasion, and particularly upon the 22d and 24th of last month, has met with your Approbation, and I return you my most sincere Thanks, for the obliging and flattering manner in which you have expressed it.
Your Resolution to continue your Exertions for the suppression of Disorder, and enforcing a due obedience to the Laws, is highly honorable to you, and meets my warmest Concurrence;—by these means we shall best evince, what I trust we all feel, an Unshaken Loyalty to our King, and an affectionate Attachment to Great Britain.

I have the Honor to be,
Gentlemen,
With great Truth,
Your very faithful Servant,
Dublin, Feb. 2, 1799. JOHN WALLER.
