We are sorry to be able to state, that during the late heavy fall of snow, the following atrocious act was committed near Golden, in this woman, and an apprentice boy,) by three men, who had their faces blackened, armed with guns and bayonets, who conveyed him to a contiguous church-yard, where they murdered him;—there appeared next day, in the snow on the churchyard wall, for several paces, the print of the unfortunate man's hands, stained with blood!
