

cruciating service, was stopped near Mullinavat, by five armed ruffians, who robbed him of a case of pistols and his sword. They also robbed a poor countryman, near the same place, of 14s. Early in the morning they went to the Inn at Mullinavat, and breakfasted there; when they were going away, the landlord perceiving they had not an intention to pay him, asked for his money, on which they opened their coats, shewed him their pistols, &c. and informed him in the most barefaced manner they were freebooters, and lived at the expence of the public. The owner of the house seeing what company he had entertained, was highly pleased at their departure, without receiving further injury. The leader of this daring gang is a schoolmaster, named Aldridge, a notorious offender.

LIMERICK,—APRIL 10.

Sunday morning morning last, Bryan Tuthell, Cornelius Donohue, John M'Auliffe, Jas. Lacey, Pat. David Kelly, Pat. Kelly, John Cavanagh, George Nix, and William Meehan, convicted before the General Court Martial assembled in this City, with Thomas Ryan, from Ennis, were taken from our Gaols by a detachment from the New Romney Dragoons, to New Geneva, from whence they are to be transported pursuant to their sentences.

The only trial proceeded on by the Court Martial this week, has been that of Thomas Duhigg, on Monday last, charged with the robbery committed in the house of James D'Arcy, Esq; of Knockaderry;—sentence not yet pronounced.

The trial of Mr. Francis Lyfaght, at Ennis, terminated yesterday; the sentence of the Court Martial, was this morning transmitted to General Meyrick.

Last night Thomas Hallinan, an inhabitant of Glin, fell from the Custom-house Quay into the river, and unfortunately perished.
