

We understand that Ministers yesterday received accounts by the Hamburgh Mail, that the Emperor of Russia has issued orders to his cruizers to stop all neutral ships bound to France, wherever they may fall in with them. This order has given serious alarm to the Danes, Swedes, &c. as they must either forfeit the beneficial trade which they now carry on, or be subject to instant attack by an enemy with whom they are unable to cope.

Private Letters are received in the City, from the best authorities, stating, that accounts have been received of the disastrous state of Buonaparte and his army in Egypt—that the Plague visited them, and has reduced their numbers to a third, and that a Vessel has been taken going to Buonaparte with an Ambassador on board to Constantinople, offering to quit Egypt with his Army, provided they get a safe conduct to France.

In the whole of the news arrived this day, the Tide of Fortune seems to be turning against the French every where.

It is reported, that three Frigates full of troops, escaped from Dunkirk, supposed to be bound to Ireland.

The letters received overland from India, by the last mail, dated in December last, represent the Indian powers to be perfectly tranquil. All the troops at the out stations and subordinaries are in constant duty, and no officer is suffered to absent from his duty.

To the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, & Freeholders of the County of Tipperary.

HAVING had the honour to present the following Requisition to the High Sheriff of the County of Tipperary, I have received from him the annexed answer:—I think it proper to state that when I presented the Requisition to the Sheriff I told him that if he conceived the number of names assigned to it to be too few to induce him to call a County, I would take it away, and return it to him with the signatures of a great many more Gentlemen and Freeholders, who wished to declare publicly, at a County Meeting, their opinion upon a Measure of Legislative Union between Ireland and Great Britain;—but he replied, That there was no occasion, as he was satisfied with the number and respectability of the names already subscribed.

I have the honour to be,
With great respect and esteem,
Your faithful and obedient Servant,

Andrew Roe,

MY LORD,

I Had the honour of receiving from your Lordship during the Assizes of Clonmel, a Requisition signed by Fifty Freeholders, calling upon me to convene a Meeting of this County, for the purpose of taking into consideration, the Measure of a Legislative Union between Great Britain and Ireland.

I have since received another Paper, deprecating in the strongest terms, the "calling together any General Meeting of the County, at such a moment as the present."—This Paper is so respectably signed, and contains amongst its signatures such a proportion of the Peerage, Magistracy, and Freehold Property of the County, as perfectly satisfied my mind, that I should not act in direct opposition to their general sense, by complying with your Lordship's Requisition.

I agree entirely in opinion with those Gentlemen by whom this Paper is signed, that the discussion of this subject, not now before Parliament, and on which there may be a diversity of sentiment, can be productive of no other effect, than that of agitating the public mind, at a moment when the
